DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT

Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information call the Yankton Police Department's Animal Control Officer, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 661-9494, or 668-5210. A $5 fee is required to adopt an animal. Animals can be viewed on the Humane Society Web site at www.heartlandhumanesociety.net.

DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.
It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

50 YEARS AGO
Wednesday, November 15, 1961
• At least 4,000 passengers — brought in by 1,117 business and private planes — arrived at airports in South Dakota during the first eight days of the pheasant hunting season.
• First year coach William Fritzmeier has his work cut out for him this winter as he assumes the basketball coaching duties at Volin. Last year Volin posted a 24-3 record, won the Tri-Valley conference, the Tri-Valley conference tourney and the District 25 championship. Gone from that team are three starters, all frontlinemen.

25 YEARS AGO
Saturday, November 15, 1986
• Parent-teacher associations are still very much alive in South Dakota, but Yankton's public schools have not had a group active in a state or national organization for several years.
• 'Tis the season for Yankton's Merrie Olde Christmas Feaste. The third annual event takes guests back to old England by serving a feast of delicacies such as roasted capon and plum pudding in a festive hall cheered by the sounds of madrigal singers and sight of court jesters.
