DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian. It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO

Wednesday, November 18, 1936

- The first accident to occur on the cutoff by which state highway No. 50 is being rerouted through the city on Fourth Street instead of Fifth Street, as at present, occurred last evening about 10 o'clock when a car driven by Clifford Mahl and who was accompanied by Lucile Rathgen, turned over in the ditch on this graded, but so far unpaved, section of the new road.
- The matter was reported to the police department and from investigation it could not be learned just how the accident happened. The belief is that the driver became confused by the angling highway and hit the ditch, according to the police report. Fortunately neither Mr. Mahl nor Ms. Rathgen were injured, although the car was somewhat damaged.

50 YEARS AGO

Saturday, November 18, 1961

- Considerable damage was done to the front of the new cafe building at the Skyline Motel at 12th and Broadway, when a semitrailer rolled backwards and hit the structure at about 2 block building for K-12, constructed in 1999-2000 and covering 60,000 square feet including the gym. Hurley operates a two-story brick building constructed in two phases. The first was built in 1948, covering 31,700 square feet, and the new addition was built in 2000, covering 28,100 square feet including classrooms, gym, administration offices and lockers.

Preparing for consolidation requires constant attention. Joachim said. However, the Viborg and Hurley boards must also remain focused on operating their districts for this final year and making the changes needed to close out current operations, he said.

"You are in a reverse situation where each of the (current) boards are still functioning and running the Viborg and Hurley districts," he said. "Their job is a little easier (than the consolidated school's board) because they just have to continue to do business as they normally do at each school. In the end, both of the districts will shift their money to one new district."

For his part, Joachim serves a dual role during this year of transition.

"It's a combination job. You're running the normal school day, but there's a lot of emphasis on working to combine two schools," he said. "For example, we had an administrators' meeting this morning where we talked about how many classrooms we need in Hurley."

Joachim predicts the new Viborg-Hurley board — particularly those members who haven't served before — will welcome the advice and experience of the current Viborg and Hurley boards.

"I'm fairly confident the new board would listen to suggestions from the other two boards," he said.

Will Joachim seek the superintendent's job for the new Viborg-Hurley school district?

"The jury is still out on that one, but the boards did say I was welcome to apply," he said.

Joachim said he's ready to help in any way he can regardless of whether he's superintendent for the new district.

"My contract runs through June 30, 2012," he said. "If they select another person who can come aboard earlier, I'm still around if they need help."

L&C Visitor Center Closes For Season

The Lewis and Clark Visitor Center, operated by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and the National Park Service will close for the season effective at 4:30 p.m. today (Friday). The center, which is located on Nebraska Highway 121 near the Gavins Point Dam, will reopen in late February. School and civic groups may still schedule tours and programs by contacting Karla Zeutenhorst at 402-667-2546.

Boaters Asked To Avoid Spillway, Powerplant

Boaters on Lewis and Clark Lake are being asked to continue to stay clear of the area near the Gavins Point Spillway and Powerplant. An electronic sign saying "No Boats Beyond This Point" is in place on the west/lake side of the dam near the spillway. As water continues to be released through the spillway, hazardous conditions persist for any vessel in the area and boaters are urged to use caution.

Applications Available For NFIB Scholarships

PIERRE — An application for one of America's most highly regarded and well-publicized scholarship awards in now available online until Dec. 15. Since 2003, the National Federation of Independent Business's Young Entrepreneur Foundation has awarded 2,095 scholarships to graduating high school seniors totaling $2,382,000.

Last year, more than 4,500 students nationwide applied for a YEF scholarship. NFIB was proud to award 131 scholarships to young entrepreneurs across the country thanks to the financial support from numerous small-business leaders, corporate, and foundation supporters.

South Dakota high school seniors wishing to apply for a 2012 scholarship can go online at http://www.nfib.com/yeef until Dec. 15. The nomination period by an NFIB member will occur Feb. 1-March 1, 2012. NFIB members can also go to the same online address to make a tax-deductible contribution to the program.

The NFIB Young Entrepreneur Awards program was established to raise awareness among the nation's youth about the critical role that private enterprise and entrepreneurship play in the building of America.

The NFIB Young Entrepreneur Award recipients will attend the university, college, community college, or vocational/technical institute of their choice with $1,000-$10,000 in tuition assistance from the NFIB Young Entrepreneur Foundation. In June of this year, NFIB YEF also honored four students selected as $5,000 scholarships winners and named the "2011 Young Entrepreneur of the Year" who was awarded a $10,000 scholarship.

To qualify for a YEF Award, students must be running their own business. They are required to write an essay describing their entrepreneurial endeavors and future goals. Standardized test scores, GPA, and class rank are also considered in the selection process. NFIB members around the country nominate applicants for the Young Entrepreneur Awards.

An independent, outside committee selects a group of qualified semi-finalists.

For further information, call or send an email to NFIB/South Dakota Member Support Manager Bethany Gosewehr at 317-638-4447, bethany.gosewehr@nfib.org.
