ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO

Saturday, November 13, 1937
 • Union truck drivers and helpers were out on strike here (Sioux Falls) this morning. (They) voted to strike last night, contending they had been refused union recognition.
 • The Johnson Bakery interests, already established in Yankton and Tyndall, will add a third business in Minnesota soon. Ted Johnson of the Johnson bakery of this city and his brother Carl Johnson of Tyndall have purchased a bakery at Worthington, Minn., and expect to take possession about December 1.

50 YEARS AGO

Tuesday, November 13, 1962
 • Eleven sleeping rooms, each with twin beds and matching birch nightstands and wardrobe cabinets, are contained in this new addition to the Mikkelsen Nursing home at 300 East Sixth street. The one-story brick structure joins the residence which was converted into a nursing home some years ago and when it and a remodeling project in the main structure are complete, the capacity of the facility will be just about double.

 • About 600 persons attended the annual Bon Homme county home demonstration club Christmas Fair, held at the Tyndall auditorium November 1 and 2. Highlights of the Christmas Fair were the dried arrangements, cake decorating, and "do it yourself" Christmas decorations demonstrations presented by Mrs. Emma Jerke, Tyndall; Mrs. Ardyce Gilbert, Scotland and Mrs. Gerritt J. Schuurmans, Tyndall.

25 YEARS AGO

Friday, November 13, 1987
 • Cindi Kostal was selected as the local Jaycees Friendly Bartender for the year. She will represent the Jaycee's in the state competition. John Auch is the chairman of the Jaycee Friendly Bartender Contest in Yankton.

Proceeds from the event will support Jaycee camps for the handicapped.
 • Pride. It comes from something we believe in. It lets us take chances. It makes us work harder. With the help of our many friends, Mount Marty has worked hard the past year to make the vision of a recreational center a reality. A reality the entire Yankton community can take pride in.

EA BOOK 39 #5

Thank you!

I would like to thank the public for coming out and showing their support and donations. I would also like to thank all the businesses that donated something to the fund raiser. Most important I would like to send a special thank you to my son, Dusten Kearney, Scott, Jeanna Phillips and Ryan Heenan for organizing and making the fund raiser happen, and to ALL of the people that helped from selling tickets to making the pancakes. Thank you to all. It is greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,
 Donna Kearney
