S. Henrietta Jundt OSB

S. Henrietta Jundt OSB, age 96, died in the Sacred Heart Monastery Care Center in Yankton, South Dakota on Thursday, November 22, 2012.

A wake service will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Sunday, November 25, and the funeral Mass will be celebrated on Monday, November 26, at 10:00 a.m., both in Bishop Marty Memorial Chapel in Yankton. Burial will be in the monastery cemetery.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Wintz & Ray Funeral Home and Cremation Service in Yankton.

Anna Mary Jundt was born May 6, 1916, the ninth of twelve children of Anthony and Barbara (Keifel) Jundt of Linton, North Dakota. Her parents were born in Russia and emigrated to the

Jundt

United States in 1905. Anna attended public school for six years and then went to the Catholic school in Fort Yates, ND. It was here that she met the Benedictine Sisters of Sacred Heart Monastery. Because of the depression she was unable to attend high school, but later completed her GED in the late 1960's — an accomplishment of which she was very proud. Anna entered Sacred Heart Monastery on June 2, 1932, and credits the Sisters at Ft. Yates and her parents as great influences in her call to the Benedictine way of life. She was invested as a novice on June 23, 1934, and received the name Henrietta. She made first profession on July 11, 1935, and her final profession in 1940.

S. Henrietta served on many missions in a variety of ministries beginning at St. Mary's Hospital, Pierre, SD; Stephan, SD; St. Thomas More Hospital, Canon City, CO; the Bishop's House in Sioux Falls; Madonna Home, Lincoln, NE; and at Mount Marty College, Sacred Heart Hospital and Sacred Heart Monastery in Yankton. For many years she was in charge of the monastery kitchen. She enjoyed many hobbies, especially crocheting and needle point. Many of her creations were sold in the Monastery Gift Shop which she managed for six years.

S. Henrietta was a quiet woman of deep faith who loved to serve and be with others. She also enjoyed nature and made sure the birds were well fed and the monastery cat did not lack for attention.

S. Henrietta is survived by her Benedictine community and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents and eleven siblings.

City To Investigate Paddle Wheel Point Source

From P&D Staff Reports

The Yankton City Commission will consider a consultant agreement Monday to investigate potential water system upgrades.

The proposal from HDR Engineering, Inc., is two-fold.

The first element of the agreement will be to design, bid and administer improvements to Water Treatment Plant No. 2 that city staff has determined are needed.

The second part of the agreement is to explore the possibility of a five-million gallon well water source at Paddle Wheel Point.

The agreement is not to exceed $160,250.

Also Monday, the commission will consider creating a Meridian Bridge Plaza committee to re-examine the master plan for the area. A University of South Dakota lease agreement and a bid award for a new airport hangar are also on the agenda.

The meeting gets under way at 7 p.m. in the City of Yankton Meeting Room, located at the Technical Education Center, 1200 W. 21st St.

Christmas Store For Young Shoppers Planned

The Tuesday Stitchers of Yankton are presenting a Community Childrens Project: a "free" Christmas store for young shoppers ages 3-10 years old. Children, have your parent, guardian, driver bring you to Peace Presbyterian Church, 206 E. 31st, on Nov. 30 from 4-8 p.m.

You may shop for each person who lives in your home with you. You will shop and your gifts will be wrapped and labeled for Christmas.

Parents (drivers) may have coffee and cookies while waiting. There will be a free drawing for a quilt at 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Donating Jar Of Peanut Butter Can Help

The Sack Pack program is a sack of food that goes home at the end of the week for kids of need for food for the weekend.

The Sack Pack puts together a larger pack before the holidays. One of the items that go into the pack is a jar of peanut butter. If anyone would like to donate a jar of peanut butter for the Sack Pack Program, they can leave it at the following places: Ability Building Services at 909 West 23rd. or Wells Fargo at 200 Cedar St.

The Sack Pack would use it in the packs before Christmas.

If you have questions about the Sack Pack peanut butter donation, call Sandi Kramer at 605-660-5430.
