Hollins Scores 41 To Power Minnesota Past No. 19 Memphis

PARADISE ISLAND, Bahamas (AP) -Andre Hollins scored a career-high 41 points to lead Minnesota to an 84-75 victory over No. 19 Memphis on Friday in the consolation semifinals of the Battle 4 At-

The sophomore guard scored 24 points in the first half — one off his career high entering the game — and he closed strong, making 7 of 8 free throws and throwing in a monster dunk over the final 1:15 to account for all the Golden Gophers' points in a 9-0 run to end the game.

His 'Roos fell behind early and never got close in losing to third-ranked Ohio State 91-45 on Friday night. It was a learning experience for a team not accustomed to all the bright lights and big-name players. "Obviously they're a very good team," he said. "We gave them a lot of early shots. A lot of our kids hadn't been in this situation before, too, with this type of crowd, this type of environment." The Buckeyes (4-0) had their way in almost every category, shooting 61 percent from the field (31 of 51), forcing 18 turnovers that they transformed into 23 points and continuing to apply pressure as the margin mounted.

"We know that we have another gear in us. We came out with fire." said Deshaun Thomas, who led the Buckeyes with 21 points in just 21 minutes. "When we were up 20 or 30, we kept our foot on the pedal and we didn't stop. That's what we need to do to teams.'

Randle, known as a good shooter, had a rough start to the season, making 3 of 22 from beyond the arc in the Cardinal's first five games. He finished 4 of 6 on Friday and made one with 8:12 left after Northern Iowa closed to 49-45. That started an 11-2 run that put the game away. Stanford was 8 for 19 from beyond the arc.

Morehead State Suspends Coach Sean Woods For One Game

BY GARY GRAVES

AP Sports Writer

Morehead State suspended coach Sean Woods for a game Friday after he pushed one of his players during a loss at No. 8 Kentucky.

Woods will sit out Monday night's home game against Norfolk State while assistant Dylan Howard coaches in his place.

Morehead State athletic director Brian Hutchinson suspended Woods after meeting with the coach.

"This will allow coach Woods to consider his action and behavior, and allow him time to contemplate the appropriate way to conduct himself with his players and on the sideline," Hutchinson said in statement released by the university.

The first-year Eagles' coach pushed Devon Atkinson in the back Wednesday night as the senior point guard walked toward the bench after fouling out with 5:51 remaining. Woods said in a statement that "will not happen again.'

"My behavior during Wednesday night's game was inappropriate and unacceptable," Woods said. "I am truly sorry."

The former Kentucky guard rarely stood still during the 81-70 loss to his alma mater, pacing the sidelines and getting in the faces of his players. Morehead State responded with a physical game in which the Eagles held the lead against Kentucky in both halves.

After the game, Woods defended his coaching style, saying he wanted his team to reflect his passion for the

It was his second intense sideline encounter with a player this season. During a 67-45 loss at Maryland on Nov. 12, Woods was seen yelling in the face of Chad Posthumus while the iunior center was on the bench.

Friday's statement was Woods' second apology this week.
