Yankton Celebrates The First Harvest Halloween Festival

P & D PHOTOS BY KELLY HERTZ

LEFT: Some of the crowd on the streets during the Zombie Walk was dressed to the hilt. They may have been bound to the costume ball held later Friday night at the Riverfront Event Center. ABOVE: At least one trick-or-treater lost his head while attending the Press & Dakotan's annual Spotted Halloween event Friday afternoon. Several hundred kids turned out for the event. Education

State aid to education is lower now than 5 years ago. I will work to restore funding for education.

Fair Wages

I worked to get the minimum wage increase on the ballot. I will advocate for hard working South Dakotans.

Health Care

The Legislature refused $250 million in Federal Medicaid. I will work to secure these funds for our State.
