Boys And Girls Club Boards And Staff Honored

More than 150 youth call the Boys & Girls Club in Yankton home every day after school and during the summer. Many fantastic people come together to ensure a safe, positive place for Yankton. The Boys & Girls Club is governed by a local Advisory council with local leaders from the Yankton area as well as a Corporate board which helps to guide Clubs in Brookings, Flandreau, and Yankton and is made up of community leaders from all three communities. These boards were honored for their high levels of engagement and achievement at a regional conference last week.

Boys & Girls Club Board of Directors were honored with the Gold Level of the National Boys & Girls Clubs of America EAGLES Award. This award recognizes boards for reaching milestones in the areas of: Engagement, Asks, Giving, Leading, Evaluating, and Serving. Within the Midwest region, our Board of Directors was one of only two honored with this significant achievement. These leaders work tirelessly to better opportunities for youth in our communities.

The Boards and community have been instrumental in helping our Clubs grow. This was showcased in an award given to the Boys & Girls Club of Yankton for increasing the number of youth that use our Club each day. Our Club was one of eight honored Clubs for increasing the number of youth we served each day by over 25% in 2013. This is a great testament to community involvement, leadership, high quality staff and increase in great programs for our kids.

As Executive Director of the Boys & Girls Club of Brookings, Moody County and Yankton, Vanessa Merhib was awarded the prestigious Horizon award. This honor is given to an Executive Director who has served over five years and shown exemplary leadership within her own Club and throughout the nation.
