

MMC Veteran's Day Program Monday

On Monday, Nov. 10, in honor of Veteran's Day, Mount Marty College will be honoring those who have served and are currently serving in the United States Armed Forces with a Veteran's Day program and prayer service. The event will be held at 10 a.m. in the Cyber Café on the Yankton campus.

The Veteran's Day event will include a keynote speech by South Dakota State Sen.-Elect Bernie Hunhoff (MMC '74) as well as special music from members of the MMC Choirs and Music Department Faculty.

The entire community is invited to give thanks and honor our veterans.

Daugaard Signs Vets Day Proclamation

PIERRE — Gov. Dennis Daugaard has signed a proclamation recognizing the service of South Dakota's veterans. The proclamation encourages South Dakotans to remember the service and sacrifice of the nation's veterans and military personnel during Veterans Day observances.

"Whenever they've been needed, members of America's armed forces have risen to the challenge of protecting our nation," said Daugaard. "This is a day that is intended for giving thanks and reflecting on what has been sacrificed for our freedom."

"Those who have worn the uniform of the United State have been prepared to sacrifice life and limb for the sake of our people and our values," said Larry Zimmerman, Secretary of the South Dakota Department of Veterans Affairs. "We owe them a debt of gratitude greater than we can ever pay back."

"This year, the Department and our partners have been contacting veterans to thank them for their service and brief them on benefits available to them," said Zimmerman. "I encourage all of you to ask the veterans in your life to contact the South Dakota Department of Veterans Affairs if they have not received a call regarding Operation RAV. Have them call 605-773-3269."

Secretary Zimmerman will be keynote speaker at Veterans Day programs in North Sioux City and Canton, Deputy Secretary Pollard will be the keynote speaker in Bison and Program Manager Henderson will be the keynote speaker in Colman.

Funding Available For Honey Bee Habitat

RAPID CITY — The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) has announced that more than $4 million in technical and financial assistance is available to Midwest farmers and ranchers to improve honey bee habitat.

This funding provides producers guidance and support to implement conservation practices that will create safe and diverse food sources for honey bees.

"Honey bees play a vital role in South Dakota crop production," said Bob Reiners, South Dakota Department of Agriculture (SDDA) apiary specialist. "Our state is home to 324,682 colonies maintained by 228 beekeepers on 6,748 locations across the state. In 2013, these colonies produced 14,840,000 pounds of honey with a value of $30,570,000. In recent years, we have run into decreasing numbers due to colony collapse disorder. This USDA initiative will also provide additional benefits to native pollinators."

Local staff and technical specialists with the NRCS can help develop a plan to address resource concerns. Now is the time to contact your local Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) office to begin developing a good conservation plan on your farm or ranch or, visit www.sd.nrcs.usda.gov/. Funding is provided through the Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP) and applications are due Friday, Nov. 21.

OBITUARIES

Clarice Reiff

Clarice Marie (Hubner) Reiff passed away on November 5, 2014 at the age of 81 at the Sanford Hospice Cottage in Luverne, MN after bravely and valiantly battling the disease, Multiple System Atrophy (MSA).

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 8 at 10:00 a.m. at Miller West Funeral Chapel in Sioux Falls, SD. The committal service will be held at 2:00 p.m. at the Trinity Presbyterian Cemetery in Avon, SD followed by a gathering and lunch at the Avon Fire Hall.

Clarice was born on September 12, 1933 to Emmanuel and Pauline (Engel) Hubner and grew up on a farm north of Avon, SD. She received her education in Avon. Clarice spoke fondly of her grade school days at Myrtle country school and of her time on the farm. Clarice married Johnnie Reiff on December 13, 1957. They were blessed with four daughters – Pam, Sandy, Jill and Lora. Johnnie and Clarice raised their family in Avon until 1978 when they moved to Sioux Falls. They were married for 50 years when Johnnie passed away on April 12, 2008.

While in Avon, Clarice worked for a time at Avon Enterprises and also babysat, always loving the kids like her own. After the move to Sioux Falls, Clarice worked at Northwest Fabrics and then at Citibank. Clarice was a hard worker and rarely missed a day of work. She was a recipient of the Citicorp Service Excellence award.

Clarice was a self-taught sewer. She made many outfits for her girls during their school days. She was active in the Avon PTA, a member of the Avon Legion Auxiliary, First Presbyterian Church and a constant supporter of her kids' activities. Clarice tended to a big garden every year and canned countless fruits and vegetables. She supported Johnnie throughout his career, taking care of the family and even buying the gifts that were safely tucked away in dad's suitcase for him to give to the girls when he returned from his trips.

Clarice was an outstanding homemaker, baker and cook. Even as the family grew, Sunday dinners were a regular event. The grandkids loved her buns, cinnamon rolls, chicken, barbeque and almost everything she made. Both Johnnie and Clarice enjoyed having Alan & Carla Meiers and Jolene & Dan Sterner, her nephew and niece, living in Sioux Falls as they had many fun times together. Clarice bowled for many years and she loved crafts. Each family member has a special, sequined Christmas stockings that Clarice made as well as a blanket that she made for each of them. She sewed many costumes for their different occasions. Clarice made a quilt in honor of each grandchild for Project Linus for several years. She taught quilt tying to the kids and they helped her with these quilts.

Clarice loved her family, especially her 13 grandchildren. She loved spending time with them, helping them and watching their activities. Clarice had a special relationship with Ashley (Meiers)

Mach and Courtney Meiers and thought of them as two more granddaughters. Clarice loved her four great-children and treasured their visits and the time together.

Clarice is survived by her children, Pam (Doug) Dooyema, Sandy (Ron) Soyland, Jill Hanson and Lora Reiff. She will always be lovingly remembered by her grandchildren: Andrew Dooyema, Katie (Jordan) Kopp, Amanda (Brad) Bullerman, Kelsey (Jake) Hendricks, Rachel Soyland, Samuel Dooyema, Ryan Soyland, Elijah Dooyema, Naomi Dooyema, Jeremiah Dooyema, Luke Hanson and Jed Dooyema as well as her great grandchildren: Olivia, Micah and Mason Bullerman and Ellianna Kopp. Also surviving her are her sister, Joyce Janssen, her sisters & brothers-in-law, Phyllis Hubner, Dale & Cleo Reiff, Bob & Joann Reiff, Ethel Reiff, Merle Reiff Anita Bitterman and many nieces and nephews.

Preceding Clarice in death was her husband of 50 years, Johnnie, beloved grandson, Cole Hanson, parents, parents-in-law, sister Velma Meiers & her husband Lavelle, brother Burnell Hubner & his wife Minnie, brother Cliff Hubner, sister and brothers-in-law, Jim Janssen, Alma & Dale Nelson, Francis Reiff, Lloyd Reiff, Ray Reiff and Marvin Reiff.
