SPORTS DIGEST

MMC Softball Signs Winner Standout

The Mount Marty College softball program has announced that Winner's Baileigh Turnquist will attend MMC and play softball for the Lancers.

Turnquist, a 5-3 infielder, batted .363 in helping her team finish fifth at state in 2014. She also helped her squad to a league title in 2013.

"I am excited to have Baileigh join our softball program next fall. We see a good work ethic in her, which is something we look for in our players," said MMC head softball coach Albert Fernandez. "She is a good student and has many other positive intangibles. Baileigh is a great fit with our team and the Mount Marty College community overall."

The daughter of Domini Turnquist of Hamill, she plans to major in radiologic technology at MMC. In addition to her softball award Turnquist will receive an academic incentive scholarship.

YHS Football Sendoff Today At 3 p.m.

There will be a community pep rally and sendoff for the Yankton High School football team on Friday at 3 p.m. at the YHS main gym.

Yankton plays Brookings at 7:30 p.m. at the DakotaDome in Vermillion. Bucks fans are asked to wear red to the contest. Fans are also reminded that, due to construction near the DakotaDome, that they should leave early and allow for plenty of time to find a parking spot.

next point to give the Arrows a commanding 2-0 lead in the match.

Neither team could pull away from the other in the final set until the Arrows used a 5-0 run late to gain an advantage. Yankton led 18-17 but watched the Arrows rattle off five straight behind a kill from Denzer, a block by Danielle Duncan and a kill and block by Gottsleben to go ahead 22-18.

Yankton stayed within striking distance when Josie Saylor belted a kill and Ellie Fedders served up an ace to cut the deficit to 23-22. Watertown stretched its lead 24-22 on a hitting error by the Gazelles and wrapped up the match on the next point when Denzer blasted a kill to send the Arrows to the state tournament.

"This has been the goal since Day 1. We knew that coming in here with a good record like we have, that we had to prove ourselves and we did that tonight," said Duncan, one of two seniors on the Arrows along with Werner. "When you are a sophomore or junior and you go to state, you don't fully understand what it means when you are a senior. I'm really excited to be able to play in the state tournament in my last season."

Denzer pounded a match-high 13 kills on 40-46 hitting and also had a match-high 21 digs to guide the Arrows. Werner added 10 kills on 26-30 hitting and three aces on 20-22 serving and Duncan finished 10-12 serving with an ace and four blocks.

Sydney Dale recorded 33 set assists for Watertown and Gottsleben chipped in with five blocks. Tatum Hemiller and Lexi Gloe finished with 13 and 10 digs, respectively.

"Our two seniors have contributed a lot to our program with their time and dedication and it's an awesome reward to give them by going to the state tournament," said Rohde. "I'm just really happy for these girls."

Frick tallied 10 kills on 30-35 hitting and had 11 digs to lead Yankton. Saylor added six kills on 11-13 hitting and two blocks and Fedders went 10-13 serving with three aces and nine set assists. Sophie Drotzmann ended 14-15 serving with an ace and Paige Thieman led in set assists with 13. Mines chipped in with 15 digs.

"I thought we played pretty well and battled all night but Watertown was just the better team and deserved to win tonight," said Beste. "They are a very talented team and I think they are going to see a lot of success in the state tournament."

The Arrows enter the state tourney as the third seed and will face sixth-seeded Harrisburg at 6 p.m. on Thursday in the first round. Watertown defeated Harrisburg 3-1 and 3-0 during the regular season.

Wolsey-Wessington picked itself up, responding with Williams' 59-yard scoring run. The second Genzlinger-to-Gilbertson touchdown pass followed, but Williams powered into the endzone from 18 yards out on the first play of the second quarter, leaving Howard with a 20-14 lead.

"I expected them to bounce back. I know the heart that they have," Hooks said of the Warbirds' surge. "We made a few adjustments, but it came down to tackling better."

The Warbirds kept Howard at bay for two quarters, but a 59-yard punt return by Loudenburg kick-started the Tigers. While the 5-5, 150-pound senior found the endzone, the Tiger offense was helped by solid runs from Gilbertson and Jordan Kuhle.

"Our other backs stepped up. Realistically, it's what we've done all year," Ruml said. "Luke gets all the attention, but our other guys pound away, too."

Wolsey-Wessington wasted little time in answering the Tigers' touchdown. Runs by Hunter Johnson — a 2,000-yard rusher this season — and Darian Ogunjemilusi set up Williams' third score of the day. The Warbirds also responded on defense, with Williams recovering a fumble to set up a crucial drive. Wolsey-Wessington marched down to the Tiger 14-yard line, but were stuffed on fourth-and-1.

Loudenburg said the Tigers were ready for that play because of their preparation.

"We've been watching film every night," he said. "We knew exactly what play they would run, and we were ready."

The Tigers stalled offensively, giving Wolsey-Wessington one last chance. But Genzlinger ran underneath a long pass attempt by Williams to record an interception, and Loudenburg scored on the next play to ice the win.

While the outcome was not what Hooks had hoped, he said he couldn't be more proud of his players.

"We always talk about wins and losses, but you would never know how close these guys are," he said. "They set their mind to something after a tough loss last year."

have to go through the St. Thomas More Cavaliers (11-1).

The only loss for the Cavaliers was a 7-point home defeat to Winner, but St. Thomas More has come out on top of closer games than Parkston has.

The Cavaliers, despite averaging 45 points throughout the playoffs, won two games by seven points this season.

As Parkston saw in last year's semifinal win in Rapid City, the Cavaliers throw the ball more than many teams the Trojans see.

Quarterback Matthew Eastmo has passed for 1,593 yards with 23 touchdowns (five interceptions), but he has also run for 690 yards and six scores. Still, the Trojans are ready to defend the pass, Norden said.

"They play a different style than what we've seen lately, so we'll have to be ready to adapt," he said.

Defensively, the Cavaliers have a 23-5 edge in interceptions, which tells Norden they're able to adjust to any scheme.

"They're coached very well," Norden said. "They have a big staff that does a good job."
