Mead Update

PHOTO: DAKOTA TERRITORIAL MUSEUM

Pictured here is the American River's Voyage of Discover exhibit. It is planned to be on exhibit at the museum when the Mead Building is completed. The exhibit was gifted to the Dakota Territorial Museum following the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial celebration. Things are moving inside thanks to Mother Nature. This week, we met with Traub Designs from Kansas City. As exhibit designers, they will be overseeing the future exhibition hall layout of the Mead Building. This is an exciting next step as we prepare for the move. Recently the Institute of Museum and Library Services Museums for American grant has given us a wonderful opportunity to get the collection ready for the move — just two short years away. If anyone is interested in helping prepare the collection, please contact the Dakota Territorial Museum. Mark Your Calendars: The Dakota Territorial Museum is hosting a Rummage and Bake Sale Nov. 22 at the Mead Building — watch for directional signs to get to Mead as the road access has changed significantly. Stop by between 9 a.m.-4 p.m. to find some great things for the holidays. If you have questions about the project or events you can contact us at the Dakota Territorial Museum at 610 Summit Street (in Westside Park), on Facebook, or call us at 605-665-3898, or online at mead-building.org. The museum is open noon-4 p.m. seven days a week. Closed Thanksgiving Day.
