Salvation Army Bell Ringers Needed

The Salvation Army in Yankton will soon be ringing bells at local businesses in Yankton. Ninety percent of all funds raised locally are used to provide temporary, emergency assistance to local residents and transients in Yankton. You can make a difference in the lives of those in need either by donating when you see a "Red Kettle" or by volunteering to staff a Kettle at a Walmart or Hy-Vee. Organizers are looking for individuals, families, service clubs, church groups and youth groups willing to help a couple of hours during this holiday season. If you are interested in bell ringing or have questions about the Salvation Army in Yankton, Call Carol at 661-5153.

ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO
Monday, November 20, 1939
 • C.M. Banks and Sanford Peterson of the G.F. Buche company organization here have purchased the Buche grocery store in Yankton and will operate the grocery business as an independent store.
 • Denying the application for a permanent writ of injunction to prevent Gov. Harlan Bushfield from removing from office J. W. Beckwith as secretary of the South Dakota Unemployment compensation commission, and sustaining the removal, Judge A. B. Beck, Lake Andes, of the first judicial circuit, says that at a time when "we are trying to resell democracy, as a just scheme of government, to the people of America and to the world, it behooves every man holding high office to deport himself with dignity and decorum."

50 YEARS AGO
Friday, November 20, 1964
 • Member of the Yankton Chamber of Commerce voted Thursday to endorse the recommendation of the Chamber parking and traffic committee on the question of parallel parking on Third Street and recommend a thorough study of the Third street parking problem.
 • Today the Class "AA" All-State team is announced...and two members of the Yankton Bucks earned second team berths...the honored were lineman Duane Kruger...and junior halfback Roger Larson.

25 YEARS AGO
Monday, November 20, 1989
 • This year's United Way campaign has gone well this year, said two officials of the local organization. Rick Duimstra, president of the board of directors, said the community has been very generous.
 • Okay, getting the jump ball could be chalked up to luck, but when juniors Mason Billings and John Osborne hooked up on a game-opening "alley-oop" dunk Saturday afternoon, it was more than obvious Mount Marty College just might be ushering in a new era of men's basketball.

OBITUARIES

Edward Sasse

Edward Bernard Sasse Jr., 70, of Vermillion died Tuesday, November 18, 2014, at his home. He was born October 25, 1944, in Nobles County, Worthington, MN, to Edward Sr. and Verla Sasse.

Sasse

On April 9, 1966, Edward married Patsy Jean Mitchell at St. Matthew Lutheran Church in Worthington. After their marriage, the couple lived in Texas, Minnesota, Montana, Florida, California and South Dakota. Edward was an avid Minnesota Twins and Vikings fan. He drove a grain truck for Ag Opportunities before full retirement. His favorite hobbies were riding his motorcycle, target shooting, watching Nascar racing and listening to country music. He was an amazing father to his children; always helping whenever the need arose. He was an excellent provider to his family and hard worker. He often helped out at his daughter's farm and he loved spending times with his grandchildren. Edward enlisted in the US Air Force after graduating from Brewster High School in 1962 and served 21 years including tours with the strategic air command. He also served wartime tours in Thailand and Vietnam. He served 9 years as a Nuclear Security Force Supervisor and Base Security Flight Chief at Malmstrom, AFB. He retired from the USAF on February 1, 1985. Edward was awarded several medals, awards and letter of recommendation including Vietnam Service Medal, The Air Force Commendation Medal for Meritorious Service, The Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal, The Republic of Vietnam Gallantry Cross with Palm, and Air Force Outstanding Unit Award. He was preceded in death by his parents, grandparents and wife. Edward is survived by his children, Bobby Thompson (Pam) TX, Angela Pulse (Glenn) SD, Pamela Garcia (Cirenio) CA, Edward Sasse III (Tina) SD, and ten grandchildren, Ryan, Brittany, Aylissia, Ethan, Bethany, Alikah, Allurah, Leann, Nikolas, and Kai, and younger brother, Randy Sasse (Darla) of Boerne, Texas and his companion, Connie Ibarra, Yankton. Funeral service will be 11:00 a.m. Friday, November 21 at the Hansen Funeral Home in Vermillion with visitation one hour prior to the service. Burial will be in the Bluffview Cemetery in Vermillion. Harry Slaughter

(1940-2014)
 EL CAJON, Calif. — Harry "Lee" Slaughter passed away peacefully at Oakdale of La Mesa with his family and friends by his side early Wednesday morning, Oct. 29, 2014. Lee was born in 1940 in Yankton, South Dakota, son of Max and Eileen Slaughter. Lee spent the later part of his life a resident of Crest, Calif. — a small, quiet community that suited his nature and spirit. He lived a rich, full life, having many hobbies and interests including racing cars and motorcycles, collecting cars and flying planes. He was an avid sport biker. Lee never hesitated to let you know exactly what he was thinking and had a great sense of humor. He was a loyal friend. Lee was a devout Catholic and requested and received prayer services until his death. He worked in real estate, farming supply sales and computer programming. As a computer programmer, he wrote a radio communication's program for the United States Navy which is still being used today to enhance radio security. He retired in August of 2011. Lee is survived by his sister Jan Douglas and family; sons Harry and Jay Slaughter, daughter and son-in-law Stephanie and Adrian Caceres, daughters; Elizabeth and Millie Slaughter, and his loving grandchildren; Antonio and Myla Caceres. Lee was predeceased by his brother Todd Slaughter. A service for Lee will be held at 11 a.m. at St. Louis De Marillac, in El Cajon, Calif. on Saturday, November 8, followed by a reception for family and friends at the same location. Lee will be buried alongside his cherished grandfather, Harry Lee Slaughter I, in Yankton, South Dakota, in the spring. Lee will be sorely missed by so many. As he would say, "See you on the other side." Condolences may be sent to Stephanie Slaughter Caceres, 19162 Old Vineyard Rd. Los Gatos, CA 95033. Yankton Press & Dakotan November 20, 2014

Slaughter
