Technology Help Offered At Library

Do you need help with basic computer skills, e-mail, Internet searches, Facebook, etc.? If so, the Yankton Community Library, 515 Walnut Street, has just what you need.

Students from the Yankton High School National Honor Society will be at the library two Saturdays per month to work with individuals who need assistance with computers.

Registration is now open for sessions that take place on Saturday, Nov. 14 and Nov. 28, from 1-3 p.m. Thirty-minute time slots are available as one-on-one mini technology classes to anyone who registers.

This service is free of charge, but anyone needing assistance must register ahead of time by calling or stopping in the library, giving your contact information, and describing what help you are seeking.

For further information, contact the library at 668-5275.

MasterWorks Art Show Local Winners Announced

SIoux FALLS — The 19th annual SDHCA Dakota MasterWorks Creative Art Show and Competition for artists age 60 and older was held Oct. 26-27, at the Good Samaritan Society in Sioux Falls. With more than 180 entries, professional judges awarded 1st, 2nd, 3rd Place, Honorable Mentions and Best of Show to art pieces in seven different mediums of two age groups. The attendees of the event chose People's Choice entries. Entrant's ages this year ranged from 60 to 94 years old.

SDHCA Dakota MasterWorks is hosted by the South Dakota Health Care Association, Home Federal Bank, KELOLAND Television, and Golden LivingCenters as a way to demonstrate the personal growth that is a part of aging by featuring the creative talents of older South Dakotans.

"We want to showcase what older adults already know: The second half of life is full of creative growth and fulfillment," said SDHCA Dakota MasterWorks Coordinator LuAnn Severson.

Categories included watercolor painting, oil painting, acrylic painting, drawing/pastels, photography, sculpture and wood carving. Age Categories for the competition were divided into ages 60-79 and 80 years of age and older.

The National Mature Media Awards recently recognized the SDHCA Dakota MasterWorks Art Show for its commitment as an outstanding community involvement project awarding the Show a Silver Award.

First, Second, Third, Best of Show and People's Choice will be on Exhibit at the following locations:

* Ruddell Gallery at Black Hills State University, Spearfish — end of November through early January (check college website)

* Ramkota Hotel in Pierre during SDHCA Legislative Reception on January 26, 2016.
