turns her attention to her senior season of track. Her goals for the season are simple. "I hope to have another state championship in the two-mile (3200)," she said.

that opportunity both as a coach and a father. "I am excited that he has a passion for something. It just happens to be running." For the younger Dannenbring, the Dragons' program had the right mix of facilities, community and success.

They're becoming a force to be reckoned with." Gabe looks to follow his father into teaching, as he plans to major in education and science with the goal of becoming a high school science teacher.

Marshall, Parks Lead SDSU Past Weber State

BROOKINGS (AP) — George Marshall scored 17 points and Deondre Parks added 16 to help South Dakota State beat Weber State 85-68 Monday night.

cut its deficit to eight in the second half, but could get no closer. Jeremy Senglin's jumper with 14:49 left made it 53-45 but South Dakota State responded with a 10-0 run over the next three minutes and pushed its lead as high as 20, 79-59, in the final minutes.

leading Tulane to a 79-74 overtime win against Drake on Monday night. After two free throws from Dabney gave the Green Wave a 69-67 lead in regulation, Dominik Olejniczak's dunk tied it up with 39 seconds left.
