USD's Tsakakis Named Academic All-American

AUSTIN, Texas—South Dakota senior midfielder Élena Tsakakis has been named to the Capital One Academic All-America second team selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA)

Tsakakis is the second Coyote in program history to be named an Academic All-American and first since 2006. South Dakota's Katie Freeman earned the honor in 2006. It is South Dakota's 54th honor across all sports. With three teams of 11 athletes, Tsakakis is one of nine midfielders to earn Academic All-America honors. Tsakakis played an integral role in the Coyotes' midfield, working as both a defender and advancing the ball to the strikers She totaled 4,101 minutes on the pitch for her career, which ranks 15th in program history. Tsakakis tallied seven goals and five assists over four seasons. She also helped the Coyotes advance to the Summit League Tournament for the first time in 2015.

Tsakakis is one of two Summit League players to earn the distinction. Senior defender Kaily Cox of Oral Roberts was also named to the second team.

A native of Edina, Minn., Tsakakis maintains a perfect 4.00 grade-point average as a biology major. She also has a double minor in sustain ability and French.

To be eligible for Academic All-America consideration, a student-athlete must maintain a cumulative GPA of at least 3.30, have reached sophomore athletic and academic standings at her current institution, and be nominated by

Six From MMC Earn NAIA Academic Honors

Six members of the Mount Marty College cross country team - three men and three women - were recognizes as All-America Scholar Athletes by the NAIA for the 2015 season. All six Lancer honorees are juniors.

On the men's side, MMC's Jordan Houdek (Spearfish), William Lawrence (Columbus, Nebraska) and Christian Petrich (Lennox) were recognized. Caitlin Davis (Elk Point), Berkley Rietveld (Mitchell) and Tiffany Tramp (Crofton Nebraska) were honored for the Lancer women

Also honored on the women's side was Morningside's Elizabeth Kube, a senior from Crofton. In order to be nominated by an institution's head coach or sports information director, a student-athlete must maintain a minimum grade point average of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale and must have achieved a junior academic status to qualify

Niobrara-Verdigre's Kalkowski To Compete In Track & Field at Wayne St.

WAYNE, Neb. – Wayne State College head track and field coach Marlon Brink announced today that Trent Anderson of Holdrege and Cade Kalkowski from Niobrara have signed national letters of intent during the NCAA early signing period and will be a part of the Wildcat men's track and field program in the 2016-17 academic Kalkowski was a three-sport standout at Niobrara-Verdigre where he was a four year starter in football, basketball and track and field. He was a four-time All Niobrara Valley Conference and All-District selection in football and finished his career with 290 tackles. The 6-3, 260 pounder had a personal-best mark of 135-1 in the discus last season as a junior and also ran legs on the 4 x 100 and 4 x 400 relays.

'Cade has a great build for a thrower and we feel has a lot of upside to be developed yet," said WSC head coach Marlon Brink. "He is a very good all-around athlete who I think will find rapid improvements in a year-round structured training you have a tough loss like that, especially to end your season ... that's something you take to the offseason and you prepare like crazy and just remember, 'Hey, that happened. We don't want that to happen again.' Nebraska coach Mike Riley, the newest face in this rivalry, has had a tough first season in Lincoln. But a win over the Hawkeyes would send the Huskers to a bowl game, take some heat off Riley and give the program momentum heading into 2016. Oh, it would probably ruin Iowa's national title hopes.

Nebraska Tightening Security For Friday Game Against Iowa LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — The University of Nebraska-Lincoln is adjusting its security measures at Memorial Stadium for the football game against Iowa on Friday. Officials are asking fans to arrive early to expedite entry before the 2:30 p.m. kickoff. Gates open at 1 p.m.

Some gates will not be available for entry. Gates 6 and 8 will be closed, while Gates 1, 17, 18, 19, 21 and 22 will close at kickoff. Fans whose tickets display a gate that is closed should use the next available open gate.

Fans will be required to open outer garments for visual inspection. Blankets will be permitted.

The university said the security measures are not related to any specific threat and are consistent with adjustments being made at other sites following recent international

"You have to have some inherent pride in being a competitor," Riley said. "You've got to love that as a coach and as a player, to be able to take advantage of an opportunity to beat a wellrespected team."
