

Second Arrest Made In Connection With Thefts

From P&D Reports

A second arrest has been made in connection with three Yankton County burglaries, according to the Yankton Police Department. Nina Tallman, 19, Yankton, was arrested Tuesday for four counts of possession/receiving stolen property; two counts of second-degree burglary; third-degree burglary/entering or remaining in an unoccupied building to commit a crime; grand theft; first-degree petty theft; and criminal entry of a motor vehicle. Previously, Bryce Selwyn, 18, was charged with possession of stolen property, possession of a controlled substance and two counts of second-degree burglary. He was arrested Sept. 22. The police department, in cooperation with the Yankton County Sheriff's Office and the Cedar County (Neb.) Sheriff's Office, recovered property last week in excess of $10,000 that was taken in three separate residential burglaries within Yankton County. Property damage associated with the burglaries is in excess of $3,000. Lt. Mark Payer said no more arrests are expected in connection with the case.

Extension Announced For Flood Claims

PIERRE — Missouri River residents who have flood insurance now have an extra 30 days to file their claim and statement of loss for 2011 flooding, the National Flood Insurance Program has announced. Owners whose buildings or property were initially damaged by Missouri River flooding on June 1 now have until Oct. 29 to file their claims and their "proof of loss" (a statement of what was damaged by the flood). Those who first had damage on June 2 now have until Oct. 30, and so forth. Flood insurance claims and proofs of loss usually must be filed with insurance agents within 60 days of the damage. That deadline has now been extended twice for the 2011 Missouri River flooding, to a total of 150 days.

Paul Heine

VERMILLION — Paul Heine, 62, of Vermillion, SD passed away Friday, September 30 in his home after a battle with cancer. Paul was born December 9, 1948 in Yankton, SD to Leonard and Mary (Wieseler) Heine. He attended school in St. Helena, NE, and graduated from Cedar Catholic in Hartington, NE. Following graduation he joined the Navy, serving during the Vietnam War.

Paul married Mary Jane Tramp on April 22, 1972 in Menominee, NE. He spent most of his life farming the land he loved in the Vermillion area. Though farming was his passion, his entrepreneurial spirit took him down many other paths including residential development.

While his hobbies in life included cooking, grilling, John Deere tractor restoration, hunting and playing cards; his true passion was his family. There has never been a father more adored by his children and son-in-laws. Those who knew him well would say his best qualities were his loyalty, work ethic and sense of humor. He was also well known for his integrity and character.

He is survived by his wife Mary Jane of Vermillion, a son Michael also of Vermillion, 3 daughters: Tessa (Dale) Erdei of Winnetka, IL, Jill (John) Showers of Broomfield, CO and Heather (Collin) Prosser of Vermillion, as well as eight grandchildren. He is also survived by 5 brothers: Francis "Bud" (Doris) Heine and Daniel Heine all of Vermillion, vey) Fridrich of Tyndall; and a brother-in-law, William (Doris) Engel of Sioux Falls.

Charlie was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Helen Horacek, Sr., his wife, Carol in 2009, two brothers, Lawrence Horacek and Lloyd Horacek, two nephews, Darryl Horacek and William Horacek, and a sister-in-law, Jane Horacek.
