Mount Marty Noon Forum Slated Thursday

"Summer School Is Greek to Me" will be the topic of Thursday's Mount Marty College Noon Forum in the Roncalli Center. The program will be presented by MMC student, Scott Bormann. Bormann is an MMC nursing student who will talk about his studies in Greece. This presentation is open to students, faculty, staff, and community members. Noon Forums are free presentations held each Thursday from 12:05-12:50 p.m. in the South Dining Room of the Roncalli Center. Guests are welcome to buy a cafeteria lunch or bring their own.

Yankton Archery Tourney To Benefit NBCF

The NFAA Easton Yankton Archery Complex will be hosting its "Shoot Like a Girl" archery tournament at 7 p.m. Oct. 12, as a benefit for the National Breast Cancer Foundation. All proceeds will go to the NBCF. Contestants will shoot from 18 meters (Vegas Style). The target consists of three breast cancer ribbons, the white in the center of the ribbon's loop is worth 10 points, and anywhere on the pink is 5 points; this includes a very small breast cancer ribbon in the I Shoot For the Girls™ logo. There will be 10 rounds, for a total max score of 400 points. Each arrow should be shot at a different ribbon. Double scoring and certification by a range officer is required. Shoot Like A Girl had so many families shoot last year, that they will offer more youth categories this year: Women's Division, Men's Division, Young Adult (15-17), Youth Division (12-14), and Cub (11 and under). Shoot Like A Girl is working with their corporate sponsors for the final list of prizes for the overall winners; and BowTech has already donated a Heartbreaker Bow for the overall Women's Division Winner.

Stengle Featured At G.A.R. Gallery Friday

Yankton Area Arts will be hosting a First Friday reception from 5-7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 7, at the G.A.R. Gallery. Featured this month will be the culinary artistry of Chef Staci Stengle from Hy-Vee. The visual art exhibition "The Time at Which" featuring the paintings of Jennifer Barta continues to run through Oct. 11 at the gallery at 508 Douglas Avenue. Chef Staci is a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America in New York City. Since 1990, she has worked in restaurants, hotels, and with caterers from coast to coast preparing every kind of deliciousness imaginable! In 2010, she joined ranks with Hy-Vee to bring her exceptional and unique cuisine to her hometown of Yankton. There is no charge for the reception, and the public is invited to attend. Stengle will be on hand to discuss the nuances of her tasty treats and offer some "chefy" advice during the Gallery Talk which will begin at 5:30 p.m. The G.A.R. Hall Art Gallery and Yankton Area Arts are located at 508 Douglas. The gallery is open to the public free of charge from 1-5 p.m. weekdays and from 1-3 p.m. on Saturdays. For more information, call 665-9754, email yaa@iw.net or see www.YanktonAreaArts.org. First Friday is a monthly event designed to promote access to and celebrate arts and artists in the community.

USD Slated To Celebrate Slagle Renovation Friday

VERMILLION — The University of South Dakota is celebrating the grand reopening of Slagle Auditorium with two very special events on Friday, Oct. 7. At 3:30 p.m., outside on the Slagle Hall and Old Main plaza, USD will host a ribbon cutting and donor recognition ceremony with a special announcement by President James W. Abbott that will include the unveiling of the new name of the auditorium. The auditorium will be named in honor and appreciation of a major contributor to the project. At 8 p.m., the renovated auditorium will be on full display with a concert featuring the South Dakota Symphony along with the university's Rawlins Piano Trio and USD voice faculty. The concert is free and open to the public. The $8.2 million renovation of Slagle Hall Auditorium began in the fall of 2008 transforming the 38,000-square-foot auditorium into a performance venue. Renovations to the facility include upgrades to acoustics and seating, state-of-the-art technology as well as updated aesthetics to preserve the auditorium's historical elements. Constructed in 1925, the auditorium provides the university community with an elegant and exciting stage for large events, including musical theatre, orchestras and musical ensembles, soloists, dance companies and lectures. Closed since the renovations began in 2008, Slagle Auditorium reopened March 16, 2011, and celebrated with 1,200 fans two days later at its inaugural concert featuring the rock band OneRepublic.

DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT

Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information call the Yankton Police Department's Animal Control Officer, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 661-9494, or 668-5210. A $5 fee is required to adopt an animal. Animals can be viewed on the Humane Society Web site at www.heartlandhumanesociety.net.

DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian. It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.
