Like Cleveland Losing LeBron, IndyCar Trying To Act Like Patrick Leaving Won't Hurt
BY JAMES D. CIMBUREK
james.cimburek@yankton.net

Danica Patrick has been the poster child for the IndyCar Series for seven years. She has been fairly successful on the track but has been a media darling, garnering the series more attention than any amount of excitement on the track could create.

"Having her, it was more, we know she's going to draw a crowd and let's take advantage of it." As I read the Kevin Kelly piece that the above quotes came from, the tone from IndyCar sounded vaguely familiar, like I'd heard that tune before, like a little over a year ago when LeBron James "took his talent to South Beach."
