DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT

Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information call the Yankton Police Department's Animal Control Officer, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 661-9494, or 668-5210. A $5 fee is required to adopt an animal. Animals can be viewed on the Humane Society Web site at www.heartlandhumanesociety.net.

DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.

It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

Bullying Forum Set For Monday

A forum on bullying, sexual harassment, sexting, cyberbullying and digital safety will be held at 7 p.m. Monday, Oct. 24, at the Yankton Middle School Auditorium.

This will be an education program that targets a wide group of individuals, including students, teachers and staff operating within the school environment, and parents and the greater community operating outside the school environment.

The program provides training to school staff, educates students regarding bullying/cyberbullying and its dangers, and addresses the community to raise awareness of bullying and gain support for anti-bullying policies. It is important to educate and engage all of the groups involved with bullying activities, including bullies, victims, peer onlookers, and adults.

Presenters discuss the verbal and nonverbal, direct, indirect, physical and emotional expressions of bullying, the legal ramifications of these behaviors, and technological (sexting, cyberbullying) and other vehicles for these behaviors.

This presentation is appropriate for parents, teachers, counselors, and community members.
