Gayville-Volin Church Fall Supper Oct. 6

GAYVILLE — The Gayville-Volin United Methodist Church is holding its Fall Supper at the Gayville Community Center on Saturday, Oct. 6, running from 5-7:30 p.m. The menu includes Swiss steak, herbed potatoes, corn, dinner roll, pie and drink. There will also be hot dogs, beans, chips, dessert and drink available for children and for a reduced price. There will also be a craft and food bazaar. Tickets can be purchased by any church member.

Mountain Biking Event To Be Held Saturday

Ace Bike and Fitness of Yankton will host young riders, ages 6-16, for a youth mountain biking event on Saturday, Oct. 6. The ride is part of a nationwide celebration known as Take a Kid Mountain Biking Day, supported by the International Mountain Bicycling Association (IMBA). Riders will meet at the Meridian Bridge South Yankton parking lot on the Nebraska side of the river at 9 a.m. The ride will finish by 10:30 a.m. This ride will be on off road trails. Mountain bikes or bikes with wider tires are recommended. Parents are encouraged to ride, too. For more information, visit http://tinyurl.com/9ood2fe.

Legislature Candidates Touring Area Saturday

Three candidates for state Legislature on the Democratic ticket will visit Gayville, Volin and Mayfield on Saturday morning to share ideas with area residents. A caravan of candidates and friends will meet at the Territorial Capitol in Riverside Park at 9 a.m. and depart for Gayville, where candidates will campaign and answer questions on Main Street. The caravan will proceed to Volin for a 10 a.m. program and listening session at the Volin Cafe. At 11:30 a.m., candidates will meet at the Mayfield Store for another program and listening session. State Rep. Bernie Hunhoff and fellow candidates Charlie Gross and David Allen will speak briefly and welcome ideas and questions. The three candidates said they especially want a discussion on the future of rural development and schools in South Dakota, but any issues will be welcomed. For more information on Saturday's caravan, contact Jay Williams, the chair of the Yankton County Democrats, at 665-8393.

Health Nurses To Host Breastfeeding Class

THE FAMILY OF MATTHEW PEED would like to thank all of you who have been so supportive with your kind words, e-mails, texts, cards, phone calls, visits, and words of encouragement on The Caring Bridge. We would also like to thank the many individuals and businesses from the area communities in South Dakota and Nebraska for the donated and or purchased items, gift cards and gift certificates for the silent and live auction. Also thank you to Amy and Kelli for organizing the benefit, Glen Peterson for auctioneering, the Evan Jones Band for furnishing the music, Doug's Food Center for preparing the meal and the bartenders from Gibbys for donating their time at the cash bar. Thank you to the many that gave monetary donations by way of the Matt Peed Fundraiser jars or purchasing a Praying for Matthew bracelet. Words cannot express the gratitude for the outpouring support everyone has shown us. We are truly blessed. Matthew is now at The Ambassador in Lincoln, NE and is doing well. He is making progress every day. If anyone would like to drop him a note or card, his address is: Matt Peed The Ambassador Rm 514 4405 Normal Blvd. Lincoln, NE 68506 Thanks again for all of your support and prayers. Miracles do happen.

DAILY RECORD POLICY The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian. It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.
ARRESTS Holly Treter, 37, Yankton, was arrested Tuesday on a warrant for identity theft. John Benson, 43, Yankton, was arrested Wednesday for driving with a revoked, suspended or canceled license.
INCIDENTS A report was received at 9:04 p.m. Tuesday of a theft of services at a business in the 3000 block of Broadway. Five parking tickets were issued in downtown Yankton for time limit violations. A report was received at 8:58 a.m. Wednesday of a pasture fire along Highway 46 in rural Lesterville. A report was received at 10:07 a.m. Wednesday of a battery stolen from a camper in the 500 block of Green St. A sheriff's office report was received at 10:45 p.m. Tuesday of vandalism along Meadowview Road, Yankton.
CRIME STOPPERS Anyone wishing to report anonymous information on unlawful activity in the City of Yankton or in Yankton County is encouraged to contact the Crime Stoppers tip line at 665-4440.

ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO Monday, October 4, 1937 With delegations here from eight or more outside points and a large attendance of members from Yankton and vicinity Marty Council No. 1536 Knights of Columbus held a special program yesterday at Sacred Heart school. Grand Knight Elmer Kaveney presided at the session which convened at 2 p.m. for the initiation of a large class. Four more conference games, bringing together early season leaders in the South Dakota Intercollegiate football circuit, was expected to clarify the championship picture this week. Northern Normal, Southern, Huron college and the School of Mines, winners in their opening conference tilts last week, all face further tests, as eight of the ten circuit members plunge deeper into the season's battle.
50 YEARS AGO Thursday, October 4, 1962 Remodeling of the brick building at 326 Broadway, home of the new Valley State Bank of Yankton, was being completed with finishing touches and the installation of furnishings today, in readiness for the grand opening announced for Friday. Coach Jack Richardson has spent much time emphasizing to his Bucks that the Huron Tigers are no push-over, and whether the Yankton high school football squad takes his words seriously will be determined tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock on Crane field.
