DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT
 Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information call the Yankton Police Department's Animal Control Officer, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 661-9494, or 668-5210. A $5 fee is required to adopt an animal.

DAILY RECORD POLICY
 The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.
 It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

ARRESTS
 • Theodore Thornton Jr., 21, Yankton, was arrested Monday for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle and resisting arrest.
 • Zachary Morford, 21, Yankton, was arrested Monday on a warrant for failure to pay a fine for a seatbelt violation.
 • Tracy Gibbens, 31, Yankton, was arrested Monday on a warrant for failure to pay a fine for first-degree petty theft; two warrants for second-degree theft by insufficient funds check; and a warrant for failure to comply.
 • A 17-year-old Yankton male was arrested Monday for possession of a controlled substance and as a runaway.

ACCIDENTS
 • A report was received at 4:29 p.m. Monday of a parking lot accident in the 2700 block of Broadway.
 • A report was received at 4:41 p.m. Monday that a 1996 Ford Explorer struck a 2003 Pontiac Bonneville in the 800 block of Burrell St. The driver of the Explorer was cited for a stop sign violation.
 • A sheriff's office report was received at 10:32 p.m. Monday that a 2000 Buick LeSabre driven by a Vermillion man collided with a deer on Highway 50 near Gayville.

Daugaard Declares Oct. As Cyber Security Awareness Month

PIERRE — In partnership with the South Dakota Bureau of Information and Telecommunications (BIT), Gov. Dennis Daugaard has declared October as Cyber Security Awareness Month in South Dakota.

Today, we are more connected than ever before through the Internet. Citizens, schools, libraries, businesses, governments and other organizations use the Internet for a variety of tasks every day to stay connected with family and friends, manage financial records, conduct research, apply for jobs and student loans, provide educational opportunities, perform business operations and more. While each of these creates efficiencies in our daily lives, the connectivity has also increased the ways of heightening online security.

"Maintaining the security of cyberspace is a shared responsibility in which each of us has a critical role," stated David Zolnowsky, BIT Commissioner. "As the state's leader in information and technology, we will continue to provide awareness and education on cyber security in an effort to improve the security of South Dakota's technology infrastructure."

Internet users and South Dakota's information and technology infrastructure face an increased threat of malicious cyber-attacks, loss of privacy from spyware and significant financial and personal privacy losses due to identity theft and fraud. How can users and government employees stay safe online? Here are helpful tips to practice:

- Sharing passwords or phrases only hurts the user. Keep this information private and do not share it with co-workers or colleagues.
- For your protection, do not write passwords down on small pieces of paper or tape them to your computer. Also, remember to change your passwords regularly.
- Think about using a pass phrase instead of a password. Substitute similar symbols for characters: l!uV!s^ = I love fish.
- Access to "free" wireless networks is easy and convenient to use. However, be careful and only use encrypted wireless networks as they offer higher levels of protection.
- Avoid "free" downloads for screensavers, surveys or online club registrations as they can include hidden spyware programs.
- Reboot your computer at least once a month.
- Research shows that email attachments remain the primary means by which worms and viruses propagate. Opening attachments from unknown sources is not smart.
- If you receive an email asking for your account credentials (account name and password), delete it immediately. By responding, you can easily put your identity in jeopardy and may become a victim of identity theft.

To learn more about staying safe online or to learn more about what BIT is doing to protect the availability, confidentiality and integrity of South Dakota's data and resources, please visit <http://cybersecurity.sd.gov/>.

ASH Foundation Sponsoring Hunting Auction

The Avera Sacred Heart Foundation has announced an opportunity to bid online for a two-day Pheasant Hunt Package for two people to M&H Hunting in Dimock. The Pheasant Hunt includes professionally trained guides and pointers, lodging in the Ringneck Country Lodge, good South Dakota home-cooked meals, across 7,000 acres of assorted habitat-hunt fields, kennels, processing, wild birds and much more.

To bid on the Pheasant Hunt or to find out more information, go to www.GirardBid.com and search for "Pheasant Hunt." The online auction will close at noon on Friday, Oct. 26.

This online auction is sponsored by the Avera Sacred Heart Foundation, the philanthropic arm of the Avera Sacred Heart Hospital in Yankton. As part of our fifth annual Simply D'Vine fundraiser, there will be an online auction for the Pheasant Hunt Package. All the proceeds from this online auction will be donated to the Avera Sacred Heart Cancer Center to help assist their patients in southeastern South Dakota and northeastern Nebraska with transportation to and from treatment, housing while in treatment and ongoing wellness and educational classes. In addition, funds raised will assist in providing Charity Care, free or reduced health care services, to low-income patients.

P&D Requests Submitted Photos Be Picked Up

The Press & Dakotan has in its files dozens of photos that have been submitted to us during the past several months for publication. If you have not come in to pick up your photo(s), we ask that you do so soon. We will keep the photos on file until Jan. 31, 2013, after which time we will dispose of them.

Executions

Donald Moeller, 60, is expected to be put to death in the week beginning Oct. 28. Moeller was convicted in the 1990 kidnapping, rape and murder of 9-year-old Becky O'Connell.

Moeller's last legal hurdle lies with a federal judge who's been asked to determine whether the state's one-drug capital punishment procedure is constitutional. Moeller's federal attorneys, in a July filing, said they were seeking information on how the state is obtaining its supply of pentobarbital, whether it's from an FDA-approved company, how the drug is stored and how it's delivered. A decision in that case is pending, but Moeller last week told U.S. District Court Judge Lawrence Piersol that he wants to die.

"I killed. I deserve to be killed," he said in court.

Moeller on Tuesday wrote Piersol a letter from prison asking that the case be dismissed. Moeller's attorneys say he's incompetent and incapable of making voluntary and rational decisions and want to press forward with arguments in the case.

 • A gala masquerade party was enjoyed by members of the Emanon Dance Club at the Elks club last Friday night. The Charles Schlaeflis and Bob Titteringtons were in charge of arrangements, and awarded halloween pumpkin prizes for outstanding costumes.
 • The Yankton county board of commissioners voted Tuesday not to approve a free bookmobile demonstration in cooperation with Bon Homme county. Leonard Haan, Pierre, library consultant with the State Library Commission, who has been working with groups of rural citizens from the two counties in developing plans for the free bookmobile demonstration, met with the Bon Homme county commission Tuesday morning and obtained approval of the plan providing Yankton county commissioners would also give their approval.

 • The first significant snow of the season fell gently over South Dakota Friday, dropping up to 5 inches in the Black Hills and bringing chilly temperatures that prompted a Rapid City school to close after a furnace went out, authorities said. "it's sloppy, nasty, but we need the moisture," said William Hercher of Rapid City. Yankton residents saw flurries off and on Friday afternoon and early evening, a signal that more could be coming during the night.
 • The Honorary Parade Marshal for the popular USD Dakota Day event this year is very deserving of the honor - deserving, as a matter of fact, of nearly any honor the venerable institution he served for 40 years might want to hand out...for Howard Connors is red and white through and through. Connors has been a classroom teacher, coach, student advisor, even Dean of Men at the institution. But most South Dakotans know him wearing a different hat.

BOARD OF TRADE

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains futures traded mixed Tuesday on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Wheat for December delivery rose 3.25 cents to $8.6425 a bushel; December corn was flat at $7.42 a bushel; December oats rose 7.50 cents to $3.78 a bushel; while November soybeans slipped 1 cent to $15.50 a bushel.

Beef futures rose and pork futures fell on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange.

December live cattle rose 0.32 cent to $1.2672 a pound; November feeder cattle rose 0.40 cent to $1.4670 a pound; while December lean hogs slipped 0.07 cent to 76.80 cents a pound.

She may be turning 50...but she's still a kid at heart and cute as ever.

Wish Cathy a Happy 50th Birthday!
