 • All the personnel of the Yankton county auditor's office have been spending a large proportion of their time for several months on work connected with getting ready for the general election, November 6, according to Mrs. Grace Hjerreid, county auditor.
 • Yankton lodge 1356. Local order of Moose will observe its 36th anniversary Tuesday, October 23, with a banquet for all Moose members and their ladies.

25 YEARS AGO
Saturday, October 17, 1987
 • NBC Anchorman Tom Brokaw concedes there might be a public backlash against the media because of "private lives" stories about the presidential candidates, but he says the coverage was warranted. Brokaw, a Webster native who grew up in Yankton; USA Today founder Allen Neuharth, and Joseph Robbie, owner of the Miami Dolphins, all USD graduates, shared a press conference podium Friday afternoon in Vermillion.
 • With a bit of imagination, strains of jazz, country western and rock 'n roll music can be heard as one strolls around the dance floor of Skylon Ballroom in Hartington. It evokes memories of big bands and dancing, and although it recently closed its doors after 35 years of business, Don and JoAnne Dendinger, Hartington, don't think the dance hall days are over in the rural Nebraska town.

DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT

Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information call the Yankton Police Department's Animal Control Officer, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 661-9494, or 668-5210. A $5 fee is required to adopt an animal.

DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.
 It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

ARRESTS

- Randy Genzler, 45, Norfolk, Neb., was arrested Monday on two warrants for a third-degree insufficient funds check.
- Michael Brewer, 20, Hot Springs, was arrested Monday for grand theft (over $1,000), false impersonation with intent to deceive law enforcement and a warrant.
- John Hofer, 27, Yankton, was arrested Monday on a warrant for second-degree theft by deception.
- Debra Kipka, 44, St. Paul, Minn., was arrested Monday on a warrant for identity theft, obtaining property or services with a false card, second-degree petty theft and a warrant for accessory to a crime.

INCIDENTS

- A report was received at 2:55 p.m. Monday that a leaf blower and two gas cans were stolen in the 800 block of East 21st St.
- A report was received at 12:04 p.m. Tuesday of a possibly pregnant minor child.
- A sheriff's office report was received at 6:55 p.m. Monday that a cell phone was recovered on East Highway 50.
- A sheriff's office report was received at 5:15 p.m. Monday of an assault that took place near 293rd St. and 44th Ave., Irene.

CRIME STOPPERS

*Equiline offer refers to a home equity line of credit secured by the equity in your single-family, owner-occupied home. Offer applies to South Dakota within First National Bank South Dakota lending area. You must carry insurance on the property that secures your account. New money only. A First National Bank South Dakota checking account is required to receive promotional rate. Approval and terms subject to credit qualifications. Some limitations will apply. Consumer accounts only. You may be required to pay certain fees to third parties. These fees generally total between $155.00 and $610.00. The Annual Percentage Rate (APR) will be a fixed 0.9% APR for 9 months after your account is opened. Thereafter, as of September 1, 2012, the variable APR ranges from 3.75% APR to 5.25%. This APR is based on The Wall Street Journal Prime Rate ("WSP") Index +0.5% to WSP Index +2.00% (3.75% APR to 5.25% APR) depending on checking account, credit qualifications, appraised or tax-assessed value, but will never exceed an 18% APR and has a floor rate of 3.50% APR. The index is the highest daily prime rate published in The Wall Street Journal "Money Rates" table and becomes effective the first business day of the following month. Minimum credit line is $10,000. Making only minimum payments will result in a balloon payment at the end of five years, unless we renew your line at that time. Offer expires November 30, 2012.
