SPRINGFIELD, Mo.—First-year South Dakota golfer Victoria Grasso finished 49th of 93 golfers in leading the Coyotes to a 14th-place finish at Missouri State's Payne Stewart Memorial hosted Monday and Tuesday by Rivercut Golf Course.

Arkansas-Little Rock held off Missouri State in both the team and individual race. The Trojans' Emelie Westrup shot a final round, 2-under-par 70 to finish one stroke better than the Bears' Emma Clegg and capture medalist honors. Westrup finished the 54-hole event at 2-over-par.

Grasso finished at 28-over-par. Her 6-over-par 78 in round one was team low for the tournament. Sophomore Janice Baumberger tied for 77th place at 43-over-par. Sophomore Jordan Rearick and senior Nicole Funck finished one stroke back in 80th place. Sophomore Stephanie Rodgers (+48) rounded out the Coyotes' lineup.
