

USD Theatre Announces Magical New Season

VERMILLION — Two epic musicals, a farcical comedy and a critically-acclaimed drama highlight the University of South Dakota Department of Theatre's 2013-14 season.

USD Theatre opens with "Arcadia," Oct. 9-13. "Arcadia," set in an elegant English country estate, moves back and forth between 1809 and the present as the author explores the nature of truth and time as well as the differences between classical and romantic temperaments. Performances of "Arcadia" are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Oct. 9 through Oct. 12 with a 2 p.m. matinee on Oct. 13.

"Les Misérables," the epic musical by Claude-Michel Schönberg and Alain Boublil, takes the stage Nov. 21-25. The story, which takes place during 19th century France, features convict Jean Valjean on the run, hunted by the relentless policeman Javert for breaking his parole during the French revolution. A mesmerizing musical that has achieved global popularity, "Les Misérables" features 7:30 p.m. performances Nov. 21 through Nov. 23 and again on Nov. 25 with a 2 p.m. matinee on Nov. 24.

Cue the laughter with "General O's Toenail" in February. This play features an imaginative blending of farce, allegory and the theatre of the absurd as the author focuses on a young draftee and the unfortunate circumstances of his military service. "General O's Toenail" will be performed at 7:30 p.m. on Feb. 20 through Feb. 23 and at 2 p.m. on Feb. 24.

The curtain closes on this season with "Pippin," music and lyrics by Stephen Schwartz based on the book by Roger O. Hirson. Earlier this year, the Broadway revival of this modern musical received Tony Awards for Best Musical and several other categories. Pippin, the eldest son of King Charlemagne, sets out to make his life special by dabbling in women, war and politics in his quest for true love. The broad comedy, featuring bawdy characters in often dark circumstances, performs at 7:30 p.m., April 24 through April 26 and again on April 28 with a 2 p.m. show slated for April 27.

USD Theatre performances are in the Wayne S. Knutson Theatre, which is located in the Warren M. Lee Center for the Fine Arts. Tickets are available at the University Theatre Web site at www.usd.edu/cfa/Theatre or by calling (605) 677-5400.

Skyrm Set To Perform Oct. 8 Piano Recital

VERMILLION — Susanne Skyrm, professor of music at the University of South Dakota, will present a faculty piano recital at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 8, at Colton Recital Hall in the Warren M. Lee Center for the Fine Arts. The program will feature works from 18th- and 20th-century Spain.

Skyrm spent a month in Alicante, Spain, studying the Spanish piano repertoire with the noted pedagogue and concert pianist, Albert Nieto. Tuesday's program will include music that she studied with Nieto. Featured composers include Albeniz, Blacofort, Momppou and Turina, as well as 18th-century composers Albero, Scarlatti, Blasco de Nebra, and Soler. The program is free and open to the public. Skyrm will present the same program in Chadron, Neb., Wayne, Neb. and Spearfish later this fall.

A piano soloist and collaborative artist, Skyrm has performed throughout the United States and Europe. She combines performing the standard piano repertoire with research interests in early keyboards and Spanish and Latin American keyboard music. Her performances have been broadcast nationally on public radio and on public access television. Her CD, "Treasures of Iberian Keyboard Music," features a rare Portuguese fortepiano from the collections of The National Music Museum and was released to critical acclaim. Skyrm holds degrees in piano performance from the College of Idaho, the University of Cincinnati and the University of Colorado. She was a prize winner in the Mason and Hamlin Idaho state auditions and the regional auditions and the recipient of an award from the Cincinnati Three Arts Foundation. She also studied with master teacher Ionka Deckers-Küszler in Milan, Italy, for several years. Other teachers include Fern Nolte Davidson, Larry Graham, and Ray Dudley, piano; Malcolm Bilson, fortepiano; and Bernard Brauchli, clavichord.

A member of the USD faculty since 1988, she teaches studio and class piano, and piano literature, and in 2006, she was named the first recipient of USD's College of Fine Arts Biennial Distinguished Professor Award.
