

Veteran Bucks Open State Golf Tourney Today

BY JAMES D. CIMBUREK
james.cimburek@yankton.net

The Yankton Bucks may have more varsity experience than any other team taking the course at this year's S.D. State Class AA Boys' Golf Tournament, which begins today (Monday) at the Brandon Municipal Golf Course.

After a third place finish a year ago, the Bucks are hoping that experience pays off in the team's first state title since 2006.

"It's been a while since we've had experience like we have now," said Yankton head golf coach Brett Sime. "You might have to go back to when (junior) Jace (Guthmiller) was a seventh grader. We had five seniors and Jace that year."

"It's been nice to be able to work with these guys."

Only defending state champion Sioux Falls Lincoln returns as much experience as the Bucks, with all six golfers back and 14 state tournament appearances under their belts. O'Gorman players have a combined 11 state tournament appearances coming into this season, but 10 of those are owned by two golfers.

"There are a number of teams that can complete, starting with Lincoln and O'Gorman," Sime said. "Lincoln is the defending champion. O'Gorman has played well. Stevens has played well. Brandon Valley will play well on their home course. Aberdeen Central is a good team that finished second in the (Eastern South Dakota) Conference. Even Wattertown could come out and play well."

Sime noted that the lack of difficulty in the Brandon course could open the team race up a bit.

"When you play a harder course, the better teams separate themselves," he said. "I think it will be an entertaining state tournament. A lot of teams have a chance."

Yankton senior Brandon Frick echoed that statement.

"If you get a bogey, you feel like you're falling behind the competition," he said. "You feel like you have to shoot 10-under (par)."

The Bucks averaged team scores of 295 when they opened the season there in August. The 293 Yankton shot there in the season-opening Brandon Valley Invitational is a season low.

Knowing low numbers will be on the board means players must stay more focused on their own games, according to Yankton senior Ben Jensen.

"If you get caught up in what everyone else is doing, you're going to try to do things you shouldn't be trying," he said. "You have to go out and play your own game, and know that you can play well enough to contend."

Guthmiller, Yankton's leader with a 72.6 scoring average, will be playing in his fifth state tournament. Only four golfers competing this week have more state tournament experience: O'Gorman's Max Donohue (third in 2012) and Chris Gaher (tied for fifth), Brookings' Jake Steen and Sturgis' Tate McVay. Three others will be playing in their fifth tournament this week, Lincoln's Cole Peterson (tied for eighth), Aberdeen Central's Cameron Huff and Rapid City Central's Sam Musch.

Sophomore Mitch Schlingman will be playing his fourth state tournament for the Bucks. Jensen, Frick and fellow senior Logan Megard will be playing their third state tournaments. Senior Lane Sawatzke played state as a sophomore, and was on track to make the state tournament roster last season before a broken leg sidelined him right before conference.

Sophomore Mason Sundleaf, who did not make this year's state tournament roster, has also played in two state tournaments. The seniors said that the in-house competition of having seven experienced golfers playing for six spots made everyone better.

"It gives us a look at tournament-level competition," Sawatzke said. "You get that tournament feel each practice."

Now that four of this year's Bucks are in their final high school tournament, they don't want to settle for a lower finish.

"This is our last chance to make a name for ourselves," Jensen said. "We got the ESD title, but we think we can do one better. We'd like to end up with a state championship and put a stamp on this season."

'D' Breaking Through

Defensive Turn-Around Leads The Way As USD Celebrates First MVFC Win

BY JEREMY HOECK

VERMILLION — Nearly halfway through its 2013 season, the USD football team is already way ahead of last year's defensive pace.

A year ago, the Coyotes ranked last in the Missouri Valley Football Conference in total defense, allowing 387 yards and 31.5 points per game.

This year? Those rankings have jumped to second in total defense (299.6 yards) and third in scoring defense (19.6).

"We're considerably better than we were a year ago," head coach Joe Glenn said after his team won its first-ever Missouri Valley game, 17-14 over Missouri State on Saturday afternoon.

"Don't get me wrong, there's still room for improvement, but we're playing hard."

USD (2-3, 1-1) is also playing faster.

Opposing quarterbacks are completing only 48 percent of their passes and have struggled through the air, as the Coyotes lead the FCS in pass defense at 109.6 yards allowed per game.

Missouri State, for example, completed only 7-of-22 passes for 72 yards on Saturday. The Coyotes intercepted two of those throws, one that went for a touchdown by line-backer Kyle Guzic in the first quarter.

Jacks Fall To SIU

BROOKINGS (AP) — Kory Faulkner rushed for two touchdowns, passed for another and Thomas Kinney hit a pair of field goals to lift Southern Illinois to a 27-24 Missouri Valley Conference win over South Dakota State on Saturday.

The game, South Dakota State's 100th Hobo Day, was tight throughout with three ties and two lead changes. The Jackrabbits (3-3, 0-2) ended the first half ahead 17-10 after a Zach Zenner rushing TD, Justin Syrovatka field goal and Charles Elmore's 89-yard return of a Faulkner interception.

The Salukis (3-3, 1-1) responded two minutes after intermission when Faulkner hit John Lantz for a 59-yard scoring pass to tie. Faulkner ran in from the 3 in the final quarter. Kinney added field goals of 35 and 42 yards.
