

Keatinge To Present 2013 Gunderson Lecture At USD

VERMILLION — Robert R. Keatinge, an attorney of counsel with the law firm Holland & Hart LLP in Denver, will present the 2013 Clark Y. Gunderson Lecture at the University of South Dakota School of Law at 4 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 28, in the School of Law Courtroom.

An experienced attorney and teacher, Keatinge will present the lecture, "There is No Right Answer for the Wrong Question: Whither the Law? Reflections and Speculations on Questions, Answers, and the Future of Law and Legal Education." His address is free and open to the public.

Keatinge practices in the areas of business organizations, taxation and professional responsibility. He has represented a wide variety of business organizations and their owners from small start-up companies to publicly traded corporations. Keatinge was a visiting associate professor at Suffolk University School of Law, and an adjunct professor at the University of Denver College of Law and the University of Miami School of Law. He is a fellow of the American College of Tax Counsel; a member of the American Law Institute; and is listed in the current Best Lawyers in America in three specialties (Corporate Governance and Compliance Law, Corporate Law and Tax Law) and in 2012; he was named the Denver Corporate Law Lawyer of the Year by Best Lawyers.

Held annually as a lecture or symposium with the support from the University of South Dakota Foundation, the Gunderson Lecture is the Law School's preeminent lecture honoring Clark Y. Gunderson, a USD School of Law faculty member from 1934 to 1963. Gunderson devoted his life to public service and legal education. The lecture is provided through the Foundation trust fund established by the Gunderson family.

Johnson Seeks Spring Intern Applicants

WASHINGTON — Sen. Tim Johnson (D-S.D.) is now accepting applications for spring internship positions in his Washington, Sioux Falls, Rapid City and Aberdeen offices.

"This is an excellent opportunity for students to experience the United States Senate, Capitol Hill and Washington, D.C.," Johnson said. "An internship in my Washington, D.C. office will provide students with a chance to serve South Dakota and gain first-hand knowledge of the federal government."

The Washington, D.C. internship program matches interns' interests to South Dakota and federal issues and provides an opportunity to experience a wide-range of office duties. Interns may attend hearings, research issues for projects, and work with the office administrative staff. Students may also apply to intern in the press shop for Johnson. Press interns mainly work on tracking media coverage, organizing clips, and writing releases.

Internships in Johnson's state offices will provide students with in-depth knowledge of current issues affecting the state and the opportunity to work directly with South Dakotans. An intern in a state office will assist staff with special events, constituent casework, and administrative functions.

Johnson is Chairman of the Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs and a member of the following committees: Appropriations; Energy and Natural Resources; and Indian Affairs. In addition to these committees, Johnson also is involved in issue areas that include economic development, health care and education.

College sophomores, juniors, seniors and recent graduates are encouraged to apply for Johnson's spring internship program. College credits or a stipend are available. To apply for a state office internship, call toll-free at 1-800-537-0025.

To apply for a Washington, D.C. internship, interested students should submit a cover letter, resume, references, and a writing sample to:

- Legislative Internship — Senator Tim Johnson; Attn: Ryan Stee, Intern Coordinator; 136 Hart Senate Office Building; Washington, D.C. 20510; By Email to: intern_coordinator@johnson.senate.gov

- Press Internship — Senator Tim Johnson; Attn: Chris Kelly, Press Intern Coordinator; 136 Hart Senate Office Building; Washington, D.C. 20510; By Email to: chris_kelly@johnson.senate.gov/.

OBITUARIES

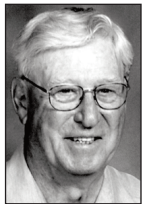

Francis Horacek

Francis J. Horacek, 90, of Yankton, died peacefully in his home on Sunday, October 20, 2013.

Memorial Mass of Christian Burial will be 10:30 a.m. Thursday, October 24, 2013 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Yankton, with Rev. Mark Lichter officiating. Burial of his cremated remains will be in the Sacred Heart Cemetery, Yankton, with the Military Gravesides Rites by the Ernest-Bowyer VFW Post #791 Honor Guard and the SDARNG Honor Guard.

Visitations will begin at 5:00 p.m. Wednesday, at the Opsahl-Kostel Funeral Home & Crematory, Yankton, with a rosary at 7:00 p.m. followed by a video tribute and then a Scripture service at 7:30 p.m. Visitations will resume one hour prior to the service at the church.

Fran was born in Yankton, SD on October 16, 1923 to Benedict and Dolphie (Pecenka) Horacek where he lived and grew up with his four siblings: Ben, Alma, Alice, and Dolores. Fran stayed in Yankton after graduating high school when he attended Yankton College for two years before entering in WWII in 1943. After serving 3 years in the war, Fran attended South Dakota State University where he played baseball and ran track for the Jackrabbits. At SDSU he met the love of his life, Dolores Almond.

They were married on November 11, 1950 in Miller, SD. They then moved to Yankton to start a family. Fran worked by cutting ice from the river and stored it in the icehouse for the next summer. He followed that job by working for Wonder Bread, became an insurance adjuster, and worked for the Job Service. In his spare time Fran played baseball for the Yankton Terry's. After living in Yankton for 20 years and raising 7 children, Fran and Dee moved to Kadoka, SD where they opened up The Mercantile Store. They lived in Kadoka for 14 years and moved back to Yankton to open a men's clothing store, The Outrigger.

Upon retirement Fran enjoyed watching his grandchildren in their many activities and gave them life lessons along the way. In his spare time he enjoyed playing golf, working on crossword puzzles, and carving wood. All of Fran's family was proud of him in July of 2012 when he was inducted into the Yankton Baseball Hall of Fame.

Fran's parents always taught him to get along with people and get along with the world and he hopes all live by those words.

Fran is survived by his children: Lynne (Doug) Nelson of Yankton, SD, Matt Horacek of Harford, SD; Luke Horacek of Yankton, SD, Mary (Andy) Echtermeyer of Steamboat Springs, CO, Lisa Horacek of Steamboat Springs, CO, Margaret Stewart (Stewart Bass) of Yankton, SD and Jamie (Heidi) Horacek of Browns Park, UT; grandchildren: Jason (Jill Sternquist) Nelson, Heather (Justin) Olson, Sarah Horacek, Mason Horacek, Derrick Nelson, Jacob Stewart, Sam Stewart, Emma Stewart and James Stewart, all of Yankton, SD; and great-grandchildren: Easton and Xavier Nelson, Burkley, Mathea, and Oxford Olson.

He was preceded in death by his wife Dolores Horacek, his mother and father and sisters, Alice and Alma.

Sara Wills

Sara Danforth Aasland Wills, age 76, of Yankton, South Dakota died Sunday, October 20, 2013 in Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

A memorial service will be 10:30 a.m. on Friday, October 25, 2013, at Christ Episcopal Church in Yankton with Reverend James Pearson officiating.

A gathering of friends and family will be held from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 24, 2013 at Christ Episcopal Church in Yankton with a prayer service and time of sharing at 7:00 p.m.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Wintz & Ray Funeral Home in Yankton.

Sara Danforth Aasland Wills was born March 3, 1937, in Yankton, South Dakota to Hugh and Evalyth "Micky" Danforth. Her childhood and schooling was split between Yankton, South Dakota and Laguna Beach, California. She graduated from Mount Marty High School in 1955 in Yankton. After high school, Sara attended the University of South Dakota in Vermillion where she was a member of the Alpha Phi sorority and where she met Delton Aasland. Sara graduated from USD with a Bachelor's Degree in Education in 1959. Sara married Delton Aasland on June 17, 1959. They moved to Sioux Falls, South Dakota and later to San Diego, California. They moved back to Yankton in 1965 where they made their home and raised their two sons.

Sara was an active member of Christ Episcopal Church where she served on the Altar Guild. Sara spent time and energy with Questers, PEO and the Yankton Historical Society. She was also a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and Beta Sigma Phi. She loved traveling all over the world, visiting with friends and family and collecting antique valentines. Throughout her life she owned several schnauzers and loved any four-legged friend. She was a wonderful historian who devoted much time to researching family genealogy as well as the history of Yankton.

Delton passed away March 8, 1998. Sara later reconnected with her old sweetheart Mike Wills, at their 45th Laguna Beach High School reunion, and they were married on June 16, 2002.

In her later years, Sara loved nothing more than spending time with her sons and their families. She loved attending her grandchildren's sporting events and musical performances. She lived a life full of laughter and she was an eternal story-teller. She had the ability to connect with anyone she met. You were a stranger for but a minute and then became a life-long friend. She had boundless energy, always thinking of others and enriching their lives through stories, kind words and thoughtful mementos. She was a living example of what it is to love your neighbor.

Survivors include her husband, Mike Wills of Yankton; two sons, Rev. Dr. Erik (Kim) Aasland of Alhambra, California and J.D. (Betsy) Aasland of San Clemente, California; six grandchildren: Laura, Nate, Lily, Linnea, Emmy, and Naomi; and a sister-in-law, Charlotte Warwar of Laguna Woods, California.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Delton; and her sister, Betsy Hobson.
