Alworth Super Bowl Ring Stolen 21 Years Ago Found

ENCINITAS, Calif. (AP) — NFL Hall of Famer Lance Alworth got his Super Bowl ring back Tuesday — 21 years after it was stolen.

The former wide receiver for the San Diego Chargers and the Dallas Cowboys contacted authorities after receiving a phone call Sept. 7 from a caller demanding $40,000 for the ring.

The San Diego County Sheriff's Department discovered the ring was scheduled to be sold Nov. 20 at an auction house in Laguna Niguel with an opening bid of $44,000.

The ring was stolen in 1992 from a now-defunct San Diego restaurant, where it was part of a display of sports memorabilia.

"It's a miracle to have it back after all these years," a smiling Alworth said at a news conference where he showed off the ring.

No arrests have been made, but sheriff's officials said they are focusing on three suspects they declined to identify.

to within four on three occasions, with the final coming at 17-13 on a Washington hitting error.

"That shows character because we didn't just drop our heads and quit. They kept playing," Beste said. "... If the girls go out on the court with the confidence they need to have, those types of leads don't happen."

Washington coach

LaDawn Nesje said the way the Warriors played can't happen again if these teams play next week.

"When you walk into a gym and Yankton's 3-16, I don't think our kids responded very well. We played slow," Nesje said. "A team that only has three wins played with a lot more vigor and a lot more heart than the Warriors did."

Yankton sophomore Sophie Drotzmann had six kills and two blocks while Frick added six kills. Junior setter Paige Thieman recorded eight assists while sophomore Ellie Fedders had seven

Lancers

The Lancers have will have to have some underclassmen ring the bell, in order to be successful this season.

"Look to see freshmen Patrick Ciganovic (Cemaphore, AUS), Mitchell Newhouse (Rapid City), Nermin Krdzalic (Sioux Falls) and Ben Hegge (Crofton, Neb.) to see varsity time this season," Baker said. "There's still a lot of growth needed, but so far they're looking good."

The Lancers are also taking a new approach to practicing this season, working hard and early in the morning are keys.

"Practice has been going alright so far," Baker said. "We have been going at 5:30 a.m. to start off, and it took the guys a while to get adjusted and prepared mentally for that. But, I think once they got used to it, we have gotten some good quality practices in. We have been working hard and teaching fundamentals are keys to pushing the right buttons."

"I'd like to think that every practice is an audition for all our players to earn playing time. Basically, any of our spots are open."

Baker understands he has a young team, but the expectations this season are still going to be elevated.

Football

Talbott rushed for a score and hit Jace Pule for a TD pass in the win.

For W-WS-SC, Austin Messmer rushed for 150 yards and a score.

Defensively, Blasius made 17 stops and Gaulke had 14 stops for KWL. Messmer and Landon Ochsner had 10 tackles each for W-WS-SC.

Chamberlain 12, Todd County 6

CHAMBERLAIN — Chris Schwartz rushed for 140

assists and eight digs.

The junior varsity match was the only sub-varsity match Yankton didn't win, as Washington came away with a 23-25, 25-20, 25-23 victory. Kaylee Wootton led the Gazelles with five kills and four aces. Morgyn Jaquith and Thieman each had six assists. Meggie Steiner had 14 digs.

Yankton took the sophomore match 25-17, 14-25, 25-11. Presley Pasco paced the Gazelles (13-7) with seven kills while Hannah Bockholt and Danielle Salvatori (five aces, nine digs) each registered six kills. Julie Soto yards and a touchdown to lead Chamberlain to a 12-6 victory over Todd County in the openign round of the Class 11A football playoffs on Tuesday.

Hunter Hallock also scored for the Cubs (5-4), who advance to the quarterfinals on Monday.

Dylan Dominiack had 12.5 tackles, including five stops for loss and a sack, to lead the Chamberlain defense. Zach Kenobbie had two tackles for loss in the win.

Ty Herman's 39-yard fumble return accounted for the Todd County score. Herman also caught all three of Falcon quarterback Joe Clairmont's completions, finishing with 53 yards.

recorded 18 set assists and five aces while Sydney Ingalls had 12 digs.

Yankton won both of the freshman matches. The Gazelles (5-15) took the 'A' match 25-17, 25-22 after Kami Cornemann recorded eight kills and six digs. Darian Tramp and Jacey Anderberg each came up with four aces while Katie Hauser had five set assists.

Kelsey Westerman had five kills and five digs to pace the Gazelles' 25-17, 25-19 victory in the 'B' match. Hauser added 11 set assists.

have a shot to contend this season.

"We're going to have to adjust all season, and a lot of it will be mental," he said. "We will see times when it's an all five senior starting five, or a top 25 program, we're going to have to figure out what our mental capacity is."

Now comes the matter of starting strong against Dakota State.

"Our guys are super excited, it shows a lot about what kind of guys we have here," Baker said. "Dakota State will be good, it's going to be a tough test for us to compete for 40 minutes. We want to have a good showing and show people what we are about."
