

DWU Volleyball Signs Four For 2014

MITCHELL — Dakota Wesleyan University volleyball head coach Eric Viney has already secured four recruits for the 2014 season, he announced this week, and three of them are from right here in South Dakota.

Winner High School's Emily Richey, Ethan stand-out Anna Mueller and Kimball High School's Anna Pazour all join the Tigers from within the state's borders, and Maxine Block comes to Dakota Wesleyan from Pahoa, Hawaii.

"This is a great start to our 2014 recruiting class," Viney said. "To be able to add a player from Hawaii, along with three local players, speaks volumes to the positive direction our program is heading in the near future. It also shows that Dakota Wesleyan as a university is a great choice for all types of student athletes. The future is bright not only for DWU volleyball, but for the university as a whole."

Wausa Downs Winnebago

RANDOLPH, Neb. — Wausa beat Winnebago 26-24, 25-21, in a consolation game in the Lewis & Clark Conference volleyball tournament on Tuesday.

Lauryl Schumacher had five kills and Tara Munter had four kills to lead Wausa. Gabby Swanson had 15 assists and two ace serves. Leanna Rosberg had two ace serves in the victory.

Wausa, 7-17, and Winnebago will open sub-district play next week.

Akron Minor League Team Now 'RubberDucks'

CLEVELAND (AP) — Splish, splash, Akron's minor league team is ready for a bath.

No longer known as the Aeros, they're now the RubberDucks.

The Double-A affiliate for the Cleveland Indians announced the new nickname on Tuesday. Team owner Ken Babby said the RubberDucks nickname and logo are designed to "honor the history of Akron and the rubber industry while creating a new identity that was fun, exciting, and family-friendly."

The team's primary logo consists of a snarling, fire-treaded duck's head accentuated by flames. The team's new official color combination of "blue flame, racing yellow, fire orange and tire black pays" tribute to Akron's heritage as the "Rubber City."

Akron's team had been known as the Aeros for the past 17 seasons, adopting the nickname when the club moved into Canal Park in 1997.

Nebraska Youth Pheasant Hunting Numbers Up

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Participation in Nebraska's special youth pheasant hunts has increased 77 percent since the program began in 2011 and 42 percent from last year.

The Nebraska Game and Parks Commission says that in 2013, 392 youth participated, compared to 276 in 2012 and 222 in 2011. The goal of the program is to increase youth participation in upland game hunting by providing them an opportunity to experience a successful hunt.

The program allows youth ages 15 and younger to hunt at nine wildlife management areas across Nebraska during the statewide youth pheasant, quail and partridge season, which took place Oct. 19-20.

The regular pheasant, quail and partridge season began Saturday.
