

Organists To Play At Trinity Lutheran

Twelve area organists are preparing for a recital on Trinity Lutheran Church's three manual pipe organ at 4 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 5. The recital is an awareness and fund-raising event for Trinity's "Organ Transplant" project: moving the organ from Heritage Hall (the former sanctuary) into the new sanctuary.

Performers are Jane Bobzin, Eugene Brinkmeyer, Sandy DeSaix, Dianne Diekmann, Phyllis Nielsen, James and Marilyn Nyberg, Sheila Peterson, Ted Powell and Norm Wright. Also performing are students Wesley Brandt and Laura Nelson.

The music being performed ranges from 16th to the 21st centuries. Powell and Wright are playing their own improvisations on familiar hymn tunes. The Nybergs will be performing a four-hand, two-foot arrangement of Sousa's "Stars and Stripes."

In keeping with the informal nature of the recital, Heritage Hall will be set with tables and chairs, so the audience can sip beverages and enjoy sweet and savory treats during the recital.

Fundraising Event Slated Oct. 6

Catholic Daughters Court Willard #967 will be holding a fundraising event at the Yankton Pizza Ranch on Broadway on Monday, Oct. 6, from 5-7:30 p.m. Pizza Ranch will be donating a percentage of total sales that night of dine-in / carry out sales (excluding delivery sales) to the organization.

Members of the group will be present to bus tables and to visit with customers also that night. Just a few of the projects that Court Willard is involved with and donates to are: Women's Shelter, Contact Center, Yankton Area Food Banquet, House of Mary Shrine, Catholic Relief Services, MMC scholarship, Educational Contests, the elderly, Respect Life, Radio Rosary, Girl's State and many other local charities. Catholic Daughters cooperate, motivate, volunteer, pray, encourage, envision and inspire others along the way. Come and enjoy a fantastic meal and help us out!

Rosary Rally For Peace Set For Crofton

CROFTON, Neb. — The St. Rose Respect Life Group of Crofton is inviting you to join them in the recitation of the Patriotic Rosary as part of the Public Square Rosary Rally. This special event will be held on Saturday, Oct. 11, at 11 a.m. at the South City Park, Crofton, Nebraska.

Each year, thousands of Public Square Rosary Rallies are held in various locations throughout the country. Last year, there were nearly 12,000 groups simultaneously praying for our country and the world all across America.

The rosary will be offered for the conversion of the U.S., for an end to abortion and protection of life at every stage, in reparation for the countless sins which are committed daily against the most Sacred Heart of Jesus and the most Immaculate Heart of Mary, for the preservation of our religious freedoms and an end of religious persecution.

Various groups and representatives from different organizations within the parish will be leading the Joyful Mysteries of the rosary.

Please bring chairs. Refreshments served afterwards. In case of inclement weather, the rosary will be held at St. Rose of Lima Church at Crofton.

An even better turn-out is expected this year, so the group is inviting the public to take part and help to change the world with prayer.

God Is Our Source Of Victory

BY PASTOR RALPH PORTER
Calvary Baptist Church

What's this world coming to? Increasing political turmoil, physical disasters, perversion, arrogance, rage! There's plenty for people to worry about!

Where will it all end? We watch nightly news and hear increasingly tragic reports of mayhem and violence. Fear that evil is rising unchecked grips us.

Jesus promised that hard times would come, but He has overcome the world. The very passages that promise things will get worse, also promise that those who are faithful in following Him triumph with Him in the end. Things aren't out of control, however bad they may seem.

The key question is whose team we want to be on when the game's over! The last several chapters of Revelation tell us how the story ends. It's no secret. God wins and people who are trusting in Jesus win with Him.

In the meantime, we are shielded by God's power until that victory arrives (1 and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time."

God, who is the source of our victory, is our protector. That doesn't guarantee that nothing bad will ever happen to us. God has assured us that hard times will come. However, He is with us in the hard times and will ultimately give victory to people who trust Him. Not only do we look forward to future vic-

Peter 1:3-5 ESV). "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time."

tory, God empowers us today for victorious living in a godless society.

Whether we are talking about the immediate future, or the ultimate end of the story, we are able to face the fear of uncertain days ahead, and of the rise of evil, by focusing on the One who overcame it all by rising from the dead. We focus on God, who gives us the ultimate victory.

We hear popular expressions like: "It's not over til it's over!" "He who laughs last, laughs best!" However you describe it, God wins in the end; and people who trust Him win with Him!

There are lots of things we don't know about the future. There are hard questions, perplexing uncertainties, that we don't know the answer to. But Revelation, with all the questions that go unanswered, clearly answers one question with no doubt: God wins! He triumphs over the evil one and all his forces, and those who trust Him triumph with Him!

Benedictine Monk Slated To Speak At MMC

Father Terrence Kardong, OSB, priest and monk from Assumption Abbey in Richardton, North Dakota, will give a talk titled "Internet and Contemplation" as part of the college's Community Hour at 10 a.m. Monday, Oct. 6. The talk will be held in Marian Auditorium, and all are welcome to attend.

Fr. Terrence is considered one of the top Benedictine scholars in the United States on the Rule of St. Benedict (c. 480-547), a "little rule for beginners" written primarily for monks, but whose principles have proved relevant to people of all classes of society over the centuries. St. Benedict established 12 monasteries during his lifetime, one on the mountain above Cassino, 80 miles south of Rome.

Fr. Terrence is the editor of the American Benedictine Review, and author of publications including "Together Unto Life Everlasting: An Introduction to the Rule of Benedict," "Commentaries on Benedict's Rule: II" and "II Asking Benedict: A Study Program on the Rule of St. Benedict for Classes and Private Use."

For more information on Fr. Terrence's Yankton visit and Oct. 6 lecture, call Andy Henrickson, Director of the Benedictine Institute of Leadership, Ethics and Social Justice, 605-668-1495, or email ahenrickson@mtmc.edu/.

Calvary Church To Host Gospel Concert Oct. 25

The Allen Family will be in concert at 7 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 25, at Yankton's Calvary Baptist Church.

For the past 17 years, the Allen Family has had the privilege of traveling across more than 35 of the United States and four Canadian Provinces in full-time Gospel music ministry. They have also performed in Jamaica, Guatemala, Zambia and Uganda. Industry professionals awarded Todd, Michelle and their oldest son, Caleb, a first place finish at the 2000 National Quartet Convention Talent Search in Louisville, Kentucky. In the years to follow, the other Allen children joined their ministry and they quickly became a favorite family group of thousands internationally. Todd, Michelle, Gabrielle, Joshua, Jared, Danielle, Abigail, Zachariah and Christian live in their bus 365 days a year and fill more than 275 engagements annually. The family was nominated for Favorite New Mixed Group in the 2013 Singing News Fan Awards and is a main stage group at many prestigious Southern Gospel music events.

There is no charge for the concert (a freewill offering will be taken) and the public is encouraged to attend this special evening of music.
