

Moral Theology Class Offered At MMC

“Failing to Bother to Love: Looking Behind the rules of Catholic Moral Theology” is a class being offered by Mount Marty College this fall. Class dates are Oct. 17, 24, 31; and Nov. 7, 14 and 21, with each class running from 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m. The class will be taught by Dr. Helen Ciernick. The class will take place in the Mount Marty College Science and Nursing Complex room 205.

This course explores Catholic moral theology from its foundational experience of God’s love and the Christian’s call to love.

Using the work of moral theologian James Keenan, S.J., we will begin by examining the experience of love before exploring the relationship between love, conscience, sin and suffering. Students will walk away with a deeper understanding of Christian love that will, in turn, deepen their understanding of sin and why a behavior is considered sinful. For more information or to register, call 605-668-1495, email AHenrickson@mtmc.edu/ or visit www.mtmc.edu/BenedictineInstitute.

Rosary Rally For Peace In Crofton

CROFTON, Neb. — The St. Rose Respect Life Group of Crofton is inviting you to join them in the recitation of the Patriotic Rosary as part of the Public Square Rosary Rally. This special event will be held on Saturday, Oct. 11, at 11 a.m. at the South City Park, Crofton, Nebraska.

Each year, thousands of Public Square Rosary Rallies are held in various locations throughout the country. Last year, there were nearly 12,000 groups simultaneously praying for our country and the world all across America.

The rosary will offered for the conversion of the U.S., for an end to abortion and protection of life at every stage, in preparation for the countless sins which are committed daily against the most Sacred Heart of Jesus and the most Immaculate Heart of Mary, for the preservation of our religious freedoms, and an end of religious persecution.

Various groups and representatives from different organizations within the parish will be leading the Joyful Mysteries of the rosary.

Please bring chairs. Refreshments served afterwards.

In case of inclement weather, the rosary will be held at St. Rose of Lima Church at Crofton.

An even better turn-out is expected this year, so the group is inviting the public to take part and help to change the world with prayer.

Halper To Speak Nov. 4 At Freeman Community Center

Born in the U.S., Halper emigrated to Israel in 1973. He is an anthropology professor and has taught at universities both in Israel and abroad. He has authored several books the latest being “An Israeli in Palestine”

In 1997, he co-founded ICAH, a grassroots political and human rights organization which uses Israel’s policy of demolishing Palestinian homes (25,000 in the occupied territories since 1967) as a vehicle for resisting the Occupation.

In 2006, Halper was nominated by the American Friends Service Committee for the Nobel Peace Prize.

In August 2008, he participated in the sailing of the first boats of the Free Gaza Movement into Gaza to break the Israeli and international siege.

His topic in Freeman will be “No Home, No Homeland: Israel’s Policy of Demolishing Palestinian Homes.”

‘Jesus And Buddha’ Talk Set For Oct. 18

The public is invited to take part in this continuing conversation where we explore the “shared spiritual landscape” of Jesus and the Buddha. The next session is set for Saturday, Oct. 18, at Christ Episcopal Church; 517 Douglas, Yankton. It runs from 9 a.m.-noon.

Participants will enjoy learning from Dr. James Finley, who practices both Christianity and Buddhism. Finley, in his previous video presentations, explored the First and Second Noble Truths of the Buddha’s teachings, the nature of human suffering and its causes. This was followed by a deep look at The Third and Fourth Noble Truths, the liberation of suffering through the practice of The Eight-Fold Path.

On Oct. 18, Finley will illumine the “shared spiritual landscape” of the Buddhist understanding of Nirvana with the Christian mystical experience of Christ or “kingdom of God” consciousness.

The morning will include brief meditations and opportunities for discussion.
