Four From Gazelles Earn All-State Honors

WATERTOWN — The Yankton Gazelles had two first-team and two second-team selections as the Class AA girls' softball All-State team was announced on Tuesday.

Senior shortstop Andi Sprakel and freshman second baseman Bailey Kortan were selected to the first team from Yankton. Pitcher Jaclyn Arens and center fielder Heather Hauer, both seniors, were named to the second team.

Sprakel batted .451 with five doubles, four triples and one home run for the Gazelles. She finished the season with 37 runs scored and a team-

Kortan batted a team-best .481, also leading the Gazelles in doubles (7), triples (5), home runs (4) and runs scored (52). She finished with 35 RBI. Sprakel and Hauer were also named to the alltournament team, announced earlier this week.

MMC's Thege Earns GPAC Volleyball Honors

OUX CITY, Iowa — Mount Marty sophomore

libero Breanne Thege shared Great Plains Athletic Conference volleyball Defensive Player of the Week honors for this past week.

Thege avearged 4.54 digs per set with 27- and 25-dig performances in conference wins against Morningside and Briar Cliff, the Lancers' first two conference wins of the season. It also marked the first time since 2008 that the Lancers beat a GPAC opponent other than Dakota Wesleyan, and the first time since 2006 that MMC beat either BC or

USD's Schutt, Hertting Named Summit League

Swimmer, Diver Of The Week VERMILLION — South Dakota sophomores Sam Schutt and Greysen Hertting have been named the Summit League's Women's Swimmer and Diver of the Week, respectively, for the period ended Oct. 12. The duo record their first weekly honors of the season as announced by the league Schutt earns her second career Swimmer of the Week award after her trio of first-place finishes helped South Dakota defeat Minnesota State. The Columbus, Ohio, native won the 100-meter free (59.60), 200-meter free (2:08.12) and 400-meter free (4:36.52).

Hertting garners her 11th career Diver of the Week honor after sweeping both diving events en route to South Dakota's victory over Minnesota State. The Appleton, Wis., native won the three-meter dive with a score of 258.05 and the onemeter with a score of 264.60, 0.4 points shy of an NCAA Zone qualifying score. After opening weekend, she leads the league in the three-meter dive and ranks second in the one-meter.

The Coyotes return to the pool Friday as they take on North Dakota at 6 p.m. in Grand Forks.

JV Bucks Down Mitchell

Sam Stewart's 36-yard touchdown run with 58 seconds left lifted Yankton to a 20-14 victory over Mitchell in junior varsity football action on Monday at Crane-Youngworth Field. Rayden Terca rushed for two 14-yard scores for the Bucks. Bashir Abd Al Kreem rushed for a team-best 127 yards.

Mason Townsend recorded 10 tackles and Tyler Guthmiller picked off two passes for Yankton. Syd Boots had seven tackles. Eric Fitch had two sacks and a fumble recovery. Parker James recovered a fumble and Dylan Lynde recorded a sack in the victory.

Yankton, 3-4, finishes the JV schedule on Thursday at Norfolk, Nebraska. Start time is set for

USD's Firtko Nets Weekly League Defensive Honor

VERMILLION — Senior middle blocker Melissa Firtko was named The Summit League's Volleyball Defensive Player of the Week in a league release on Monday. It's the second time this season and the third time in her career that she has received the honor Firtko, a native of Racine, Wis., tallied 14 blocks over two matches and averaged two blocks per set during the past week. She tallied two solo blocks and four block assists in USD's sweep of Western Illinois on Friday night, then followed up with two solo blocks and six block assists during the four-set loss to Denver on Sunday. She also added 18 kills, 10 digs and three assists over the course of the week.

Van Winkle Earns GPAC Weekly Honor

SIOUX CITY, Iowa — Dakota Wesleyan's Jared Van Winkle was named the Great Plains Athletic Conference football Defensive Player of the Week on Tuesday.

Van Winkle, a junior safety from Tyndall, picked off two passes in the final three minutes as DWU erased a 16-point deficit to beat Doane on Satur-

Van Winkle's first interception came on the first play from scrimmage after the Tigers had fought to within two points with 2:59 remaining. Van Winkle picked off the pass from Doane quarterback Brandon Stuart and returned it 21 yards to set DWU up at the 24-yard line going in. The Tigers scored on the next play to take the lead for good.

The second interception for Van Winkle, who added six tackles and a pass break up in the victory, came on the final drive for Doane and secured the win for DWU.
