DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian. It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO
Wednesday, October 25, 1939
 Rumors are general on the street that other hunters were arrested and fined as a result of the game warden round-up over the weekend here, and some criticism of the Press and Dakotan is heard for "not publishing all the names of those who paid fines" and also of Justice F. A. Bullis for "not fining all those arrested."
 Full information about German capture of the American freighter City of Flint was sought today before the government takes any formal steps to obtain her release from a Russian Arctic port.

 Indian summer conditions have hit, as records dating back to 1894 fell in eastern South Dakota when temperatures rose into the 80s on Tuesday.
 Local officials hope a newly formed S.D. Human Services Center Advisory Committee will help remove some of the mystery of the facility's operation.

WALL ST. RECAP

The stock market closed out its best week in nearly two years on a positive note Friday, helped by strong quarterly earnings from Microsoft and other big U.S. companies. Investors were able to set aside dismal third-quarter results from Amazon. The giant online retailer's shares took a beating, but that wasn't enough to drag the rest of the market down.
