Yankton made the switch at quarterback from Terca to Stephenson, and while Terca was productive out of the backfield and in the air, the offense was kept out of the end zone. The fourth-string quarterback, sophomore Garrett Tennant, even saw action late.

The Bucks, who visit Huron next Friday, have to believe they can get the job done, their coach said.

'We have too many people scared of losing and not playing to win," Likness said. We need to be playing with confidence.

"But now we just have to put the past in the past.
