Rykal was in 27th place following an opening round 77 (+6). He carded four birdies against one bogey in round two for a 3-under 68 and shot even par during his final round Tuesday to climb into third place. It was the fourth top-five finish for Rykal in his last two seasons. Did you feel like stopping the run was a key last week?

They have really good running backs and they're really experienced, and you could tell they wanted to run the ball. A lot of the teams in the Valley do. It's the same with Western (Illinois), if you can stop the run, it puts your defense in a good position.

That's the key in this league, isn't it?

Exactly. If you can do that, you can be a pretty successful defense.

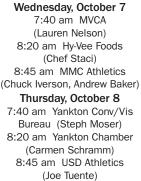

Dustin Atkinson sandwiched Rykal at 2-over and 4-over, respectively.

Northern Iowa, behind those two top-four finishers, scored a seven-stroke victory against Bradley to win the team title. The Panthers shot 874 for 22-over. Oral Roberts was one stroke behind Bradley in third place at 30-over. South Dakota placed fourth at 35-over.
