Little Lancer Camps Begin

Oct. 25
The Mount Marty College men's and women's basketball team will host its "Little Lancers" youth basketball program, beginning on Sunday, Oct. 25.

The Little Lancer Basketball program, sponsored by Mount Marty College, has been in existence since the college became coeducational in 1969. The men's and women's basketball players, under the direction of the MMC coaching staff, teach basketball skills to grade school girls and boys.

The Little Lancer Program will consist of four Sunday afternoon instructional sessions on the fundamentals of basketball. Participants will work on individual skills of passing, ball handling, dribbling, shooting and footwork. They will also receive instruction on individual and team defensive and offensive concepts.

The program also includes an optional half-time performance at the Lancer men's and women's basketball game on Wednesday, November 18.

To register, visit www.mmlancers.com/ camps. Any questions, contact MMC head men's basketball coach Andrew Baker at Andrew.Baker@mtmc.edu or 605-668-1501.

SDSU's Wieneke Named

To Awards Watch List
CHICAGO — South Dakota State University wide receiver Jake Wieneke was added to the official watch list for the STATS FCS Offensive Player of the Year award. A sophomore from Maple Grove, Minnesota, Wieneke ranks among the FCS leaders with 29 receptions for 567 yards and six touchdowns through four games. He caught two touchdown passes in each of the nationally ranked Jackrabbits' first three games, which included an 11-reception, 205-yard performance against Southern Utah on Sept. 12.

Wieneke was a finalist for the Jerry Rice Award as the FCS' top freshman during the 2014 season, ending the year with 73 receptions for 1,404 yards and a school-record 16 touchdowns. He also earned All-America honors from The Associated Press and Sports Network.

Currently, 26 players appear on the STATS FCS Offensive Player of the Year Watch List. The list will be revised periodically throughout the remainder of the 2015 season, with voting for the award taking place at the end of the regular season.

Department announced the addition of a coed Shotgun Sports team to its athletic department as the department's 22nd collegiate sport today. Doane's shooting teams will begin competing in the 2016-17 season under the leadership of new head coach Rick Marshall.

As head coach, Marshall will bring a wealth of experience to the new Tiger shooting team. He has been shooting competitively for the last 28 years and has instructed shooters for more than 20 years in all aspects of trap, skeet and shooting clays. He is a 25-time Amateur Trapshooting Association All-American team member, an inductee in the Trapshooting Hall of Fame and four-time Grand American World Champion. In addition, he is one of only three competitive shooters to ever break a 400x400 since 1880.

Correction: All-ESD Soccer

Due to an incorrect submission, the all-Eastern South Dakota Conference boys' soccer team did not list Watertown senior Mitchell Tschakert as making the first team.
