going out there like it's a real practice," Munnerlyn said. "We're like, 'Man slow it down a little bit.' He's a young guy eager to be great. That's the thing with him. He wants it so bad. That's what makes him special."

While most of his teammates take it easy in those Saturday morning jogging sessions, Diggs works up a sweat because he is "not really good at going through walk-throughs. I have to go at a good pace because how you practice that's how you play.'

"I work really hard. Walk-throughs, I take everything seriously," Diggs said. "I take my craft seriously.
