Noble Erwin Kile was born on Thursday, June 28, 1923 to Rev. Nells and Alma (Rustad) Kile in Bruce, South Dakota. The Kile family moved to Geddes, South Dakota for a time until Rev. Nells retired and the family settled in Minnesota. As a child, Noble gained a nickname that stayed with him through the years, "Nob" or "Nobby." Starting at a young age as a golf caddy in the 1930s, Noble loved golf and continued this passion throughout his life. The backyard in Detroit Lakes bordered that of the Peterson family and very quickly Nobby and Jimmy Peterson became friends. When the two began grade school, Nobby made a new friend in his class, Dorothy Sealander. He graduated from Detroit Lakes High School in 1942. Nobby enlisted in the United States Army Air Force on April 6, 1943 at Ft. Snelling, Minnesota. During this time, Dorothy was attending Concordia College, but in 1944 was able to join Nobby in Norfolk, Virginia. On March 5, 1944, Noble was united in marriage to Dorothy Sealander in Norfolk. It was again time for Nobby to be deployed, however, he was able to see his son Michael be born and baptized before he left for the Philippine Islands.

During his time in Manila, Nobby was greatly influenced and strengthened in his faith by an organization of Christian service men, later called the Far Eastern Gospel Crusade. It was at this time he felt called to become a Pastor. God was kind and brought Nobby safely home to be honorably discharged on January 25, 1946. Nobby enrolled in Concordia College in Moorhead, Minnesota where he was again reunited with Jimmy who was also beginning his journey into the ministry. Together they graduated from Concordia in 1949 and from Luther Seminary in 1952. Nobby was called to serve six churches: Buffalo, Capital, Gustave, Alma, Ludlow, and Ladner. The family quickly became at home in Buffalo, South Dakota, experiencing the rolling prairie, horses and wide expanse of miles for the first time. Soon Elizabeth Anne and Barbara Jean joined the family and the Kiles celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary. It was at this time that Nobby was called to Wibaux, Montana to serve Trinity and Carlyle congregations. Here the Kiles again shared the joys and sorrows of their people.

After four years a call was accepted to serve Trinity Lutheran Congregation in Cody, Wyoming. For the next eleven years, Nobby served the church in the tourist and oil town, an environment that was new and exciting for the family. Michael graduated high school and enlisted in the military, serving three years in Germany until he was discharged and once again made his home in Cody. Elizabeth graduated high school and married a local boy from Cody with three children being born to this union. Nobby once again received a call, this time to Scotland, South Dakota. Nobby, Dorothy and Barbara left Cody and made their new home in Scotland where they spent four wonderful years. New friends were made, joy and sorrows were shared as they worked together in Zion Lutheran Congregation. Barbara graduated high school and married a local boy from Scotland and two children were born to this union. In his 24th year in the ministry, Nobby accepted a call to Bethany-Bellevue Parish in Howard, South Dakota. Nobby would ultimately faithfully serve his congregations for a combined total of 63 years until his retirement.

Noble passed away on Sunday, October 18, 2015 at the Good Samaritan Society of Scotland having attained the age of 92 years, three months and 20 days.

He is survived and remembered by his two daughters: Elizabeth Kile of Kersey, CO and Barbara (Paul) Rokusek of rural Tripp; five grandchildren: Travis, Danielle, Dione, Andrew and Mark; nine great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; and one brother John Kile of Carlsbad, CA.

He was preceded in death by his wife Dorothy in 2007, son Michael in 2003, two sisters, and two brothers.

Fire Department Won't Bill Saloon Owner

STURGIS (AP) — The Sturgis Volunteer Fire Department will not be sending a bill to the owner of the Full Throttle Saloon that was destroyed by a blaze last month.

The Rapid City Journal reports the bill for the fire department's response to blaze added up to over $6,000. But the department has decided to ask owner Michael Ballard for only $320, which is the cost of the fuel that the department's trucks used while battling the fire.

Officials determined the Sept. 8 fire was caused by a malfunctioning electrical cord. The loss is estimated at $10 million.

Tom Trigg is the chief of the volunteer fire department. He says the department won't send Ballard "a bill per se," but will ask for a donation.

Several other departments responded to the scene.

County Seeks Solutions For Panhandlers

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Officials in a northwest Nebraska county are looking at ways to address aggressive panhandling and other alcohol-related problems in a village known for selling beer on the border of a dry South Dakota Indian reservation.

The Sheridan County Board of Commissioners met with Whiteclay residents and business owners on Monday and will convene again on Nov. 9. The tiny village sells the equivalent of millions of cans of beer each year, mostly to residents of the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation.

Commissioner James Krotz says some business owners have complained about growing numbers of intoxicated people who loiter on sidewalks and urinate and defecate in public. Krotz says he isn't sure the county can change all the problems in Whiteclay, but officials hope to make the situation safer.

Proposed Ban On Cellphone Use Fails

SIoux FALLS (AP) — The Sioux Falls City Council has rejected a ban on cellphone use while driving, and advocates of the tougher ban are upset they didn't get a chance to weigh in on the proposal.

Monday night's vote was 5-3 against banning motorists in the city from using hand-held electronic devices including cellphones.

Sioux Falls already bans texting while driving, but some believe that doesn't go far enough. City Councilwoman Michelle Erpenbach pushed for an expansion of the ban, saying talking on a hand-held phone while driving is just too dangerous.

"She didn't convince us that we need more rules on the road," Councilman Greg Jamison told the Argus Leader newspaper after the vote. "Our police chief didn't come to us and tell us there is a safety issue on our streets. There hasn't been an outcry from police, or others."

Erpenbach said she felt blindsided by the council's action, especially because members of the council's Public Services Committee had moved the proposal to the full council in hopes of generating debate.

"This was all about getting public conversation," she said.

Rich Lauer, founder of the Safer Streets for Sioux Falls group, criticized the council for killing the proposed ordinance without taking public comments.

"This is a public safety issue and they denied the public the opportunity to come and speak to the issue," he said. Safer Streets for Sioux Falls has no immediate plans to launch a petition drive to try to bring the matter to a public vote, Lauer said.

The proposal would have provided exemptions for law officers and drivers in emergency situations. It also would allow for the use of hands-free devices such as Bluetooth and dashboard GPS navigation systems.

Motorcycle Stolen In 1983 Found In Flood

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — A motorcycle stolen more than 30 years ago has turned up in Lancaster County spring flooding debris.

Authorities say crew members with the Lancaster County engineer's office found the mud-encrusted motorcycle on Saturday. It's unclear how long the motorcycle had been stuck in the spot below one of the bridges over Salt Creek.

The Lancaster County Sheriff's Office contacted the registered owner, Bradley Krutz. He says the motorcycle was stolen in 1983 when he was 16, but he never reported the theft.
