AREA DIGEST

Vermillion Girls Top Mitchell

VERMILLION — Natasha Samudzi and Teddi Settles scored as the Vermillion Tanagers beat Mitchell 2-1 in high school girls' club soccer action Friday in Vermillion.

Ashley Brunick assisted on both goals for the Tanagers, who got two saves from Katie Wasley.

Tracy Howe, Morgan Erickson and Tasha Donnelly had strong games defensively.

Vermillion travels to Groton today (Saturday).

FIU Hands Jacks First Loss

AMES, Iowa – The South Dakota State volleyball team suffered its first loss of the 2010 season on Friday, when they fell to Florida International in its first game of the Iowa State Challenge.

The Jackrabbits fall to 3-1 with the loss by the set scores of 18-25, 25-21, 21-25, 25-21 and 10-15. The Panthers, who received votes in this week's AVCA Coaches Poll, improve to 2-2 on the season.

Kaitlin Klingemann tied a career-high with 14 kills to lead three Jackrabbit hitters with double-digit kills, and did so by hitting an impressive .500, with just one error in 26 swings. Kelli Fiegen finished with one less kill, but got her 13 kills in just 22 swings and one error for a .545 hitting percentage. Defending Summit League Offensive Player of the Week Ellyce Youngren added 12 kills and tied a career-high in leading the Jacks with 17 digs for her third double-double of the season.

The team traded wins in the first three sets, with the winners pretty much controlling each set, but down 2-1 in the fourth set, the Jackrabbits worked hard to for a fifth set, forcing 13 ties and seven lead changes before eventually pulling out the 25-21 win and forcing a fifth set.

The Panthers opened an early 4-1 lead in the final set, something the Jacks could never really recover from. Down 10-5, SDSU did rally to get within two points at 10-8, but FIU scored the next three points to put the set out of reach.

The Jacks return to action on Saturday at 11 a.m., when they face No. 12 Iowa State. The host Cyclones entered the weekend 1-1 overall and play North Dakota State on Friday at 6:30 p.m. and David Aardsma threw the ninth for his 27th save in 32 opportunities.

Fausto Carmona (11-14) allowed four hits and one run, walking five and striking out six in his third complete game this season.

TIGERS 9, ROYALS 5, 11 innings: KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Will Rhymes hit a two-run triple in a four-run 11th inning to lift the Detroit Tigers to a 9-5 victory over the Kansas City Royals on Friday night.

Rhymes' triple to right-center field off Jesse Chavez (2-3), the sixth Royals pitcher, scored Alex Avila, who had singled, and Casper Wells, who reached on a Josh Fields error. After Johnny Damon walked, Ryan Raburn singled to right to score Rhymes. Austin Jackson's suicide squeeze bunt scored Damon with the final run.

ahead 7-4, Wright homered off Andrew Cashner leading off the seventh, giving him three hits.

Luis Hernandez started the eighth against Sean Marshall with his second career homer and first since Sept. 27, 2007, making it 7-6.

Soriano capped a four-run fourth off R.A. Dickey (9-6) with his 22nd homer, putting the Cubs ahead 4-3. The Mets tied it in the sixth on Lucas Duda's first hit and RBI of his career.

James Russell (1-1) got one out to end the inning. Carlos Marmol worked the ninth for his 26th save.

DeWitt hit his fifth homer in the sixth.

PIRATES 8, NATIONALS 5: PITTSBURGH (AP) — Ryan Doumit had three hits, including a home run, and two RBIs, and Garrett Jones drove in three runs to lead Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh's three rookie regulars also made contributions as Pedro Alvarez hit a two-run double in the fifth, Jose Tabata had two hits and two RBIs and Neil Walker extended his hitting streak to 10 games. That helped the Pirates win for just the second time in seven games while handing Washington its third straight loss.

Zach Duke (7-12) pitched five innings for the win and left after failing to retire any of the four batters he faced in the sixth as Washington scored four runs to close to 8-5. He allowed four runs and five hits with three walks and five strikeouts.

Joel Hanrahan, the seventh Pirates pitcher, worked a scoreless ninth for his third save.

Livan Hernandez (9-10) gave up eight hits and eight runs in 4 1-3 innings.

DODGERS 4, GIANTS 2: LOS ANGELES (AP) — Los Angeles' Chad Billingsley hit a go-ahead two-run single in the fourth inning and limited San Francisco to two hits over eight innings.

Billingsley (11-8) allowed two runs, struck out seven and walked two. Both runs were unearned, the result of a fourth-inning error by shortstop Rafael Furcal, who came off the disabled list earlier Friday.

Hong-Chih Kuo pitched the ninth to earn his eighth save.

Billingsley singled off Barry Zito (8-11) with two outs in the fourth, putting the Dodgers ahead 4-2. Zito gave up four runs and four hits in four innings and lost his fifth consecutive start. He is 0-7 in his last 10 outings and hasn't gotten past the fourth inning in his previous four starts.

DIAMONDBACKS 4, ASTROS 3: PHOENIX (AP) — Pinch-hitter Augie Ojeda hit a tiebreaking sacrifice fly in the eighth inning to lift Arizona to its eighth win in nine games.

Daniel Hudson pitched six effective innings, Aaron Heilman (5-5) allowed a hit in the eighth and Juan Gutierrez worked the ninth for his seventh save.

Adam LaRoche drove in two runs with a double in the first inning and a single in the fifth to reach 89 RBIs, eclipsing Tony Clark's 2005 team record for a first baseman by two.

Houston starter Brett Myers extended his streak of lasting at least six innings to 28 games.

Arizona pulled out the win in the eighth when Ojeda hit a ball to center off Wilton Lopez (5-1) that was just deep enough to score Ryan Roberts from third.

Hudson was sharp once again since arriving from the White Sox in a July 30 trade. The rookie right-hander has lasted at least seven innings in all six starts for Arizona, going 4-1 with a 1.85 ERA.

since late in the 2005 season. The Cardinals moved Wells to right guard this preseason after they signed veteran left guard Alan Faneca.

"We're adding a player that has started several seasons in the National Football League and has played at a very high level during the course of his career," Eagles coach Andy Reid said. "He has experience at several different positions along the offensive line and he will be a welcome addition to that group. You can never have enough depth at that position as you go through an NFL season."

Philly also released veteran running back J.J. Arrington. By releasing Arrington, the Eagles will receive a sixth-round pick from Denver in the 2012 draft, according to terms of the July trade that sent linebacker Joe Mays to the Broncos.

Minnesota sent third-string QB Sage Rosenfels, a 10-year veteran, and RB Darius Reynaud to the Giants for undisclosed draft picks in 2011 and 2012. Rosenfels will back up Eli Manning; previously, New York's only other quarterback was the untested Rhett Bomar after Jim Sorgi injured his shoulder and was placed on IR.

Several other veterans were either cut or placed on injured lists. So was rookie running back Montario Hardesty, who showed much promise in Cleveland before tearing up his left knee in Thursday night's final exhibition game. The Browns placed Hardesty on injured reserve.

After missing all of training camp with a bone bruise in his right knee, Hardesty was finally in the backfield against Chicago. The team was eager to get a good look at the powerful 23-year-old before the Sept. 4 opener at Tampa Bay, and Hardesty didn't disappoint by running for 23 yards and a touchdown on his first six carries.

His seventh was his last this year.

The Browns knew there was a risk in Hardesty playing without much practice time.

"It's a tough decision," coach Eric Mangini said. "You want to be able to see a guy, you want to make sure that he's prepared to play in the opener and do the things that he needs to do. You're also concerned about the volume of work he's been able to have up to that point.

"As we talked about it, we decided that this was going to be his last opportunity to get that work, so we thought it was the best idea to do that."
