USD Punter Earns Great West Honors
NAPERVILLE, Ill. — USD sophomore punter Cole Zwiefelhofer has been named the Great West Conference Special Teams Player of the Week, the league announced on Sunday. The weekly honor is the first of Zwiefelhofer's career and he is the first Coyote to earn the accolade this season.
A native of Chippewa Falls, Wis., Zwiefelhofer excelled in USD's season-opening game at Central Florida on Saturday. He averaged 45.7 yards per punt as he kicked six times for 274 yards. He notched a long of 52 yards and twice pinned the Knights inside their own 20-yard line. His average ranked fourth among all FCS punters in the first weekend of action.

Logan Lands With Lions; Quaye Signed To Jacksonville Practice Squad
VERMILION — Two former Coyote football standouts made news in the National Football League on Sunday. The Jacksonville Jaguars signed defensive tackle Ko Quaye to their practice squad and the Detroit Lions claimed kick return specialist Stefan Logan off waivers.
A native of Brooklyn Park, Minn., Quaye spent the entire preseason with the Jaguars, but was waived in final cuts on Saturday. Jacksonville signed him to the practice squad on Sunday, though, as NFL teams are allowed to carry eight players on their practice squads. Quaye earned All-America honors for the Coyotes in 2009 after finishing with 31 tackles, including 15 solo stops. He earned seven tackles for loss for 22 yards, which ranked 10th in the Great West Conference. He helped USD finish first in the league in scoring defense (27.2 ppg) and rushing defense (108.1 ppg) to claim first-team All-GWC accolades.
Logan was waived by the Pittsburgh Steelers during final cuts on Saturday after breaking the club's 50 single-season kickoff-return yardage record last season, but quickly found a new home with the
