NATIONAL DIGEST

Vikes-Saints 'Encore' Kicks Off NFL Season

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Minnesota Vikings outperformed the Saints in most statistical categories in last year's NFC title game, but five turnovers cost them a victory. New Orleans went on to win its first Super Bowl, while the Vikings have been left to stew over their loss until Thursday night, when the NFL's season kicks off with a rematch of one of the most riveting games played last season. Vikings coach Brad Childress is quick to point out that not nearly as much is at stake this time. Both teams will live to play again this season — at least 15 more times. That hasn't diminished interest in a game that features the return of quarterback Brett Favre, who'll start his 20th season by trying to keep pace with Super Bowl MVP Drew Brees.

Federer Tops Soderling, Reaches US Open Semifinals

NEW YORK (AP) — Dealing with the whipping wind and a familiar foe, 16-time Grand Slam champion Roger Federer served his way to a 6-4, 6-4, 7-5 victory over fifth-seeded Robin Soderling on Wednesday night to reach the U.S. Open semifinals. Federer accumulated an 18-2 edge in aces against the big-hitting Soderling and improved his career mark against the Swede to 13-1. The lone loss had come in their most recent match, in the French Open quarterfinals this year. Soderling's victory here ended Federer's streak of reaching the semifinals at a record 23 consecutive major tournaments. Federer then lost in the quarterfinals at Wimbledon, too, prompting some to question whether his best days were behind him. But now he's back in the semifinals at a Grand Slam tournament — one that he has won five times.

National League: Phillies Pound Past Florida 10-6

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Ryan Howard had six RBIs and the Philadelphia Phillies backed Cole Hamels with a rare burst of the run support he had been missing most of the season in a 10-6 win over the Florida Marlins on Wednesday night. Howard hit his 28th homer of the season and the NL East-leading Phillies had a season-high 18 hits. Hamels (10-10) tossed four-hit ball over seven innings and extended his consecutive scoreless innings streak to 25. He struck out five and won his third straight start. His record would be well over .500 if not for receiving the fourth-lowest run support (3.18 runs per start) of any starter this season entering the game. Phillies shortstop Jimmy Rollins left with tightness in his right hamstring. He is day-to-day. Gaby Sanchez hit a three-run homer for the Marlins as part of a six-run eighth off Nate Robertson. Braves 9, Pirates 3: Pittsburgh (AP) — Omar Infante had three hits, Derek Lowe beat Pittsburgh for the 10th straight time and Atlanta got the breakout victory it badly needed. The Braves opened leads of 3-0 in the first and 8-0 in the third after being held to two runs or fewer in five of their previous six games. They had lost three in a row to fall out of the NL East lead for the first time since May 31, dropping a half-game behind Philadelphia. Lowe (12-12) is 10-0 in as many starts against Pittsburgh, the best such record by any major league pitcher. Brewers 8, Cardinals 1: Milwaukee (AP) — Ryan Braun hit a three-run homer and Milwaukee roughed up St. Louis rookie Jaime Garcia. Albert Pujols hit his 36th homer in the first for the Cardinals, but that was the only run Chris Capuanu (3-3) allowed over seven innings. Astros 4, Cubs 0: Chicago (AP) — Brett Myers struck out eight in seven crisp innings and Hunter Pence homered, leading Houston to the victory. Myers (11-7) allowed three hits and walked one, improving to 10-3 with a 2.21 ERA in 17 career games against the Cubs. The right-hander is 3-0 with a 1.76 ERA in his last six starts overall. Mets 3, Nationals 2: Washington (AP) — Pinch-hitter Nick Evans delivered a tiebreaking double in the seventh inning, rewarding R.A. Dickey for an effective start and helping the Mets get the victory. Josh Thole led off the Mets seventh with a walk against Liván Hernandez (9-11) and moved to second on Ruben Tejada's sacrifice. After Lucas Duda was announced as a pinch hitter, Sean Burnett relieved and the Mets countered with Evans, who grounded a broken-bat double past the reach of first baseman Adam Dunn to make it 3-2.

aggressiveness and sticks to it." Each team tried to take control in the final match, but it was the Chargers, who put Mount Marty in a quick 5-2 hole. The Lancers were able to cut the lead down to one, but Briar Cliff continued to push forward taking a 12-8 lead when Mount Marty called their first time-out of the set. The Chargers took advantage of the time-out to rest up before they took a six-point lead over Mount Marty. The Lancers continued to fight back and get the final set back to even at the 16th point with a solo block by senior Krista Hohn. Briar Cliff took a three-point lead heading into the final four points of the set. Mount Marty wasn't finished going a 4-1 run to tie the game up at 22. Each team traded points until the final two points — first with a kill by Pace and a game ended ace by senior Nicole Hoogeveen. "Coming out of this loss I think we were able to learn how to gain momentum during each set," senior Maggie Goree said. "It is nice to see that we only gave up three or four points at time and didn't dig ourselves into a hole that we wouldn't be able to climb out of." Goree led the Lancers with 10 kills, after the game, she said that she happy about how she has been hitting the ball so far this season. "I have been really working on hitting the ball consistently throughout the whole court," she said. "Last season I was up and down in my kills, so it is nice to see that so far I have been able to keep a steady pace in double digits." Official statistics were not made available. Climer said that she is pleasantly surprised with the play from her freshman middle blocker Jena Peters. "Anywhere that I asked Jena to play she has stepped and per-win for the Red Sox. B.J. Upton hit a three-run homer for Tampa Bay. Rangers 8, Blue Jays 1: Toronto (AP) — Ian Kinsler led off the game with a home run, Derek Holland won for the first time since mid-May and AL West-leading Texas stopped its losing streak at five games. Nelson Cruz also homered for Texas, which had seven straight to the Blue Jays since a victory on opening day. Kinsler hit the 13th leadoff home run of his career and first this season. Cruz launched a two-run drive off the center-field restaurant in the ninth, his 17th. Jeff Francoeur added three hits for the Rangers. Tigers 5, White Sox 1: Detroit (AP) — Jeremy Bonderman pitched eight strong innings for Detroit. Chicago entered the game with a seven-game winning streak, but has been outscored 14-2 by the Tigers over the last two nights, including seven unearned runs. Bonderman (8-9) allowed one run and three hits. He struck out eight and walked one. John Danks (13-10) pitched six innings for the White Sox, yielding five runs, two earned, and eight hits.
