

micki's meanderings

Another issue of Her Voice is upon us and once again I'm so excited for you all to read and enjoy it. Along with some terrific stories there is also a wide variety of advertisers in this issue. You'll want to check out every page.

I'd first like to mention the story about the Boji Queens. I also have a group of high school friends I'm still in touch with and ironically they're from Central Lyon High School in Rock Rapids, IA too. (Well, actually, not so ironic, since Gloria Abe, one of the Boji Queens is my sister) ha-ha. When Gloria called to say she was coming to Yankton for the annual gathering of her high school buds I thought, what a terrific idea, and what a fun story to share with our Her Voice readers. Gloria's friend Mary has a condo out by the lake and part of the time the gals stayed at the resort and once again Yanktonites came through and provided this group of ladies with a terrific time and an abundance of hospitality. I wouldn't be surprised if they came back! For selfish reasons, I hope so; it was great to see my sister and all her friends.

I think you'll also enjoy the story Cathy Sudbeck did on tailgating. I'm sure you were all a little surprised to see a group of men on the cover of this issue, but we all felt it was a fun photo to share, plus we knew it would get your attention. Along with reading about the tailgating adventures of these folks you can find some great recipes and fun food ideas too.

I won't mention every story in this issue but I encourage you to enjoy it cover to cover. I did step out of my comfort zone a bit and write a little book review you'll find in this issue of Her Voice. Our very own Yankton Library and the staff there are just wonderful and I can always find some great books to enjoy. This particular book had so many good life lessons I just wanted to share it with you guys.

This poem came in an email I got from a friend and I thought I'd share it with you. The author is anonymous.

*The clock of life is wound but once,
And no man has the power
To tell just when the hands will stop
At late or early hour.
Now is the only time you own.
Live, love, toil with a will.
Place no faith in time.
For the clock may soon be still.*

God bless you all and thank you for your continued loyalty to Her Voice magazine and the Press and Dakotan, you are appreciated.
