Great Plains Athletic Conference (GPAC) games.

"We were trying to get the freshmen some playing time that they normally don't get during the season," Climer said. "We don't have a JV team this season and feel bad they don't get that game-time experience during the year."

Mount Marty was able edge out the Saints win the second set 25-20.

The third set was almost a recreation of the first set with the Lancers going on an early 10-2 run.

The Saints were able to score two points, but the Lancers scored seven points in a row including three straight kills by Maggie Goree.

Presentation College made a small run at the end, but it was a little to late for the Saints with Mount Marty taking the third set 25-13.

One thing that Climer was able to do throughout all three sets was no call a single time-out allowing her team to figure problems out on their own.

"First game our team took off, so I didn't have to call a time-out," she said. "Our team needed to figure out the problems on their own."

Goree's all-around performance of 10 digs, seven kills and two aces led MMC, while Jerdee added seven aces, seven digs, eight assists and five kills.

Tina Rowbotham led the team in assists with nine, she also had three aces. Kayla Ranek led the defense with 15 digs, while Kristen Grassa followed with 10 digs and three aces.

One of the reserve players making an impact was Kerry McDonald with seven assists, four kills and two digs.

Mount Marty will attempt to take their win streak into a GPAC match, hosting Dakota Wesleyan University Tuesday at Laddie E. Cimpl Arena.

"Right now when we are winning the team is seeing great things they are doing," Climer said. "I think they are shocking themselves on how well they can actually play."

COYOTES

continue the pressure on a Rangers team that didn't help itself with 13 penalties.

The Coyotes intercepted NWOS quarterback Kyle Jech five times, sacked him twice, forced a fumble and limited the Rangers to 99 rushing yards.

"USD has an outstanding football; I think they proved that a week ago, and we saw that first-hand today," NWOS coach Keith Barefield said. "We had a good time playing in this environment; it's not very often programs like ours can experience this."

The Coyotes will stay indoors for their next game, but in a place that has not been kind to USD over the years.

When USD plays No. 23 North Dakota State — which scored an FBS upset of its own this season in beating Kansas — next Saturday night, the Coyotes will attempt to win in Fargo, N.D. for the first time since 1978.

That's where not over-looking Saturday's NAIA opponent was key.

"Moving into a D-I program, you've got to become a mature team," Flanagan said. "When you're supposed to win, you have to win. It was a Super Bowl win last week, but that was last week.

"Now we have to look week by week the rest of the season."
