A NOTE FROM YOUR SHERIFF

After serving you for over 38 years in the Yankton County Sheriff's Office, and eight terms as your sheriff, I have decided not to seek re-election. I've found tremendous satisfaction in this job, and will be looking for some way of continuing to serve in another capacity. With the support of the community, the help of other county employees, and a very good staff, we've been able to build an efficient and productive office and jail which I will be proud to turn over to the next sheriff.

A new sheriff will be chosen in November. I care about the citizens I have been serving and have an interest in the ongoing success of this office. A successful sheriff will need many skills to manage the budgeting, accounting, investigations, civil services, personnel issues and the many other demands of this office. For these reasons, I support Jim Vlahakis to be the next sheriff.

Jim Vlahakis has proven he is the best candidate for this job. As a young man, Jim worked for me as a deputy sheriff and eventually became my chief deputy. He joined the South Dakota Division of Criminal Investigation as a special agent, and again, worked his way up to becoming the Director of that organization. Jim's knowledge of law enforcement and his administrative skills make him by far the best candidate to be the next sheriff. Jim will work with all citizens and he will make well thought out decisions regarding issues that affect you.

I urge you to compare the credentials and accomplishments of the candidates and then join me in supporting and electing Jim Vlahakis to be the next Yankton County Sheriff.

Your Sheriff,

 Paid for by Dave Hunhoff.
