Volunteers Sought For Local Habitat Project

Habitat for Humanity of Yankton County, a Christian housing ministry, is seeking volunteers to raise the walls at Fifth and Mulberry Street on Sept. 9-10. The job site hours are from 7:45 a.m. to 3 p.m.

In addition, Habitat seeks volunteers to greet, bake goodies and provide meals for volunteers.

Habitat for Humanity works in partnership with our community to build decent, affordable homes with families in need of adequate housing. Habitat homeowners are chosen through a careful review and selection process. They must have a stable source of income, good credit history, compelling need for housing and must be willing to contribute 300 hours of sweat equity on their home.

Successful partners Holly Barnett and Jackie Lammers will soon own a safe, affordable home in which to raise their families in. The homes will be kept affordable through generous gifts of money, materials and volunteer labor.

Habitat will secure a mortgage and the homeowners will make monthly payments on their zero percent interest loan to Habitat for Humanity until their mortgage is paid in full.

For more information, call Julie at 260-4224.
