DAILY DOSE

Daily opinions from the P&D Sports Staff on local and national high school, college and professional sports.

BY JAMES D. CIMBUREK

As I wandered the Brookings sidelines trying to take photos to send to my good friends at the Brookings Register, I got a text from a friend currently living in Brookings. "Downright embarrassing," was all it said. I wouldn't have gone that far. Yankton's 39-6 victory was nothing near the 61-6 throttling Mitchell put on Pierre Friday night, but the Bucks definitely were not tested the way Brookings victory over Brandon Valley two weeks ago might have lead fans to believe. That will not be the case the next time Yankton takes the field, a Sept. 30 matchup with Sioux Falls Rosevelt, the only other unbeaten in Class 11AA and the top-ranked team in pretty much every media poll in the state. The Rough Riders have done to several teams what Yankton has done to the ESD so far. Besides easy wins over Aberdeen Central (46-0) and Watertown (35-17, but not really that close), Roosevelt has edged O'Gorman 19-14, bounced Lincoln 45-29 and Stevens 38-7. If you ask the Bucks, they know the work really begins now, as Washington and Mitchell follow the Rough Riders, with both those games on the road. But one thing is for certain: In the next three weeks, we will find out if this year's Bucks will earn a place in Yankton history, one that no Buck team since 2002 has been able to claim ... by hanging a championship banner.

Bucks Unbeaten, But Still Untested
