Football: Yankton Freshmen Blank Sioux City East 54-0

YANKTON — The Bucks' Tyler Schmidt scored four touchdowns Thursday afternoon as the Yankton freshman football team punished the Sioux City East Raiders 54-0. Schmidt rushed for a total 149 vards and scored 24 points for the Bucks. Tanner Frick picked up another two touchdowns in the big win while Sheldon Gant and Sam Stewart added one apiece. Reid Sawatzke controlled the offense with 68 passing yards, completing four out of six. Cody List led the defense with five tackles and Landon Binder and Colin Muth took down another four tackles

The Bucks' freshman team will take the field again on Thursday evening as they travel to Norfolk, Neb.

Soccer: O'Gorman, Harrisburg

SIOUX FALLS - Sioux Falls O'Gorman and Harrisburg played to a 0-0 tie in girls' soccer action Thursday at Yankton Trails Park.

SIOUX FALLS — Sioux Falls Washington topped Yankton 5-1 in junior varsity girls' softball action on Tuesday at Sherman Park. Heather Hauer, Bailey Kortan, Darian Tramp and Alisa Ruzicka had hits for Yankton. Ruzicka drove in the lone Yankton run.

Kalyn Peterka took the loss, striking out four. The nightcap was called due to lightning, with Yankton leading 3-0. Kortan, Hauer, Madison Dangler and Brynn Albers had hits. Dangler drove in two runs. Yankton plays in Brandon Sunday, facing Luverne, Minn., at 2 p.m., and Brandon at 3:30 p.m.

Area Bowling Officials Honored PIERRE — At the annual SD State Bowling Awards Banquet held in Pierre, two local individuals were honored for their contribution to bowling. Jenny Day of Yankton was voted Youth Promoter of the Year. Day has been involved with youth bowling for over 10 years in Yankton. She has worked diligently to increase youth membership and is a youth delegate to the state ers, raising money for breast cancer and disabled veter-

Broncos' Dreessen Doesn't Mind Ban On His Jersey

ENGLEWOOD, Colo. (AP) - Denver Broncos tight end Joel Dreessen says he isn't bothered by the Greeley school district's ban on his jersey number and others because they're associated with local gangs.

The district bans 13, 14 and 18 and their reverse, 31. 41 and 81. Dreessen wears 81.

The rule is three years old but made headlines this week after a third-grader wearing Peyton Manning's No.

18 was sent home to change. Dreessen said Thursday the ban doesn't bother him if it prevents trouble.

NASCAR Puts Limits On Hendrick Development

Aug. 24 trade.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — ASCAR on Thursday passed a ile that will curb the ability of ams to set their cars up in a way that gives the driver easier rear

The technical bulletin issued by NASCAR goes into effect next week at Chicago, when the Chase for the Sprint Cup championship begins, and many believe it is aimed ditorsports. Drivers have alleged for months that Hendrick made gains in the rear housing this season that gave its cars an aerodynamic advantage. NASCAR has maintained through the complaints that the Hendrick teams weren't breaking any rules, which four-time champion Jeff Gordon reiterated. 'When we presented it to NASCAR for approval, they didn't act like it was something they had never seen before," Gordon said. "I don't even think we were the first
