Beadle PTA Seeks Items For Rewards Programs

Box Tops for Education, Campbell's Soup Labels, Land O Lake Milk Caps, and My Coke Rewards are programs the Beadle PTA in Yankton helps with each year.

Beadle receives rewards in many different ways from these programs. The PTA receives five cents per milk cap and 10 cents per box top. This money in return is spent back at Beadle supporting many programs (classroom supplies, family events, book club, carnival, assemblies/speakers, and many other ways). By collecting codes off Coke products you're helping Beadle receive free soccer balls, footballs, and basketballs.

Community members can drop off any of the listed items at the Beadle office or they can give to a current Beadle student for them to bring to school.

Also, for those who are not familiar with Goodsearch, take a moment and check the site out. It's an EASY way to earn money for Beadle while at your computer. Set Goodsearch.com as your home page and each time you search a website (bank, weather, school calendar, etc.) you'll earn a penny for each search. If you do online shopping, click on Goodshop and you'll earn a percentage of your purchase for Beadle.

Sessions Set For State Legislature Candidates

Three candidates for state Legislature on the Democratic ticket will visit Utica and Lesterville on Saturday morning to share ideas with area residents.

A caravan of candidates and friends will meet at the Territorial Capitol in Riverside Park at 9 a.m. and depart for Utica, where a 9:30 a.m. listening session is planned. The caravan will proceed to Lesterville for an 11 a.m. session at the Fire Hall on Main Street.

State Rep. Bernie Hunhoff and fellow candidates Charlie Gross and David Allen will speak briefly and welcome ideas and questions.

The three candidates said they especially want a discussion on the future of agriculture and energy development in South Dakota, but any issues will be welcomed.

A similar caravan will be planned in October for the small towns on the eastern side of Yankton County.

For more information on Saturday's caravan, contact Jay Williams, the chair of the Yankton County Democrats, at 665-8393.

Therapeutic Harpist To Perform In Yankton Sat.

Tami Briggs, therapeutic harpist, will present "An Autumn Evening of Music, Hope and Healing," a free event set for the Riverfront Event Center in downtown Yankton at 7 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 22.

Briggs is a therapeutic harpist and is president of Musical Reflections which is located in Minneapolis, Minn. (www.MusicalReflections.com) She has played the harp at the bedside of hundreds of hospital and hospice patients. She uses her musical experience and her clinical training to address the immediate needs of the patient; the patient's loved ones, and the professional staff. She has also produced 14 CD's for relaxation, comfort and stress reduction, and has written two books.

For further information, call the Center at 605-664-0121 or contact Dr. Michael or Ellen McVay at 605-665-3344.
