A Cheat Sheet On The TV Returnees

BY GAIL PENNINGTON

© 2012, St. Louis Post-Dispatch

Ah, May. Remember May? Flowers were beginning to bloom, and TV series were wrapping up their seasons with cliffhangers designed to keep us on pins and needles until fall.

Now, fall is almost here, and a week from now, the new network TV season officially begins. But four months is a long time to remember who did what to whom on which show last spring. So here is a cheat sheet of cliffhangers, crises and big events that will be in play when shows return. My intent is to refresh your memory, which can't be done without revealing important plot points, so if you haven't watched and still plan to sometime in the future, read no further. Shows are listed chronologically by return date. All times are EDT:

• "Bones," 8 p.m. Mondays on Fox (Premiered Monday)

New mom Brennan was suspected of murder. Sure she was innocent, Booth wanted her to turn herself in, but her father convinced her to go on the run with baby Christine.

• "The Office," 9 p.m. Thursdays on NBC (Premiered Thursday)

Ďavid Wallace regained Dunder-Mifflin, Robert California departed and Andy got the top job, but kept Nellie. (The coming season, Season 9, will be the last for "The Office.")

• "Hawaii Five-0," 10 p.m. Mondays on CBS (Sept. 24)

A bank robber blew up police headquarters and killed Chief Fryer. Dirty cop Frank Delano forced Chin Ho to choose between saving his wife or Kono, but it looked as if both might die. Joe led McGarret to his mother, who isn't dead after all.

• "NCIS," 8 p.m. Tuesdays on CBS (Sept. 25)

Jimmy and Breena had a quickie wedding. A bomb blast left everyone who was at work at the time in peril. On the beach, Ducky got a call about the explosion and collapsed of an apparent heart attack.

• "NCIS: Los Angeles," 9 p.m. Tuesdays on CBS (Sept. 25) Callen shot his nemesis, "The Chameleon," and was taken into custody. Hetty resigned. • "Private Practice," 10 p.m.
