

'I Shoot For The Girls' Archery Tournament Oct. 10

"I Shoot for the Girls" will be having a tournament at the NFAA Easton Yankton Archery Complex on Wednesday, Oct. 10, running from 7-9 p.m.

Contestants will shoot from 18 meters (Vegas style). The target consists of four breast cancer ribbons, the white in the center of the ribbon's loop is worth 10 points and anywhere on the pink is 5 points, this includes a very small breast cancer ribbon in the "I Shoot for the Girls" logo. There will be 10 rounds, for a total max score of 400 points. Each arrow should be shot at a different ribbon. Double scoring and certification by a range officer is required. Shoot like a girl had so many families shoot last year, that they will offer more youth categories this year: Women's Division, Men's Division, Young Adults (15-17), Youth (12-14), and Cub (11 and under).

This tournament not only provides participants with an opportunity to compete on an International Level in a fun mail-in tournament. One hundred percent of the profit will go to the NBCFC.

Register at www.yanktonarcherycomplex.org or in person at the NFAA Easton Yankton Archery Complex, 800 Archery Lane, Yankton.

USD Women's Cross Country Stays Ranked In Midwest

VERMILLION — Despite not competing this past weekend, South Dakota's women's cross country team remained 15th in the Midwest Region poll according to the U.S. Track and Field/Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA).

The rankings remained unchanged with Iowa State still leading the region. North Dakota State remained the top team in the conference ranked in 12th place.

The Coyotes will be at the Roy Griak Invitational in Minneapolis this weekend. The event is hosted by the University of Minnesota.

Ovenden At QB Club

The Yankton Quarterback Club will meet Wednesday at noon at the Elks Lodge, 504 West 27th Street, Yankton.

This week's speaker is Sioux Falls television personality Mark Ovenden. The veteran sportscaster has been with KDLT-TV since 1996, and has been in the Sioux Falls market since 1978. The Boston native is also the co-host of the Calling All Sports radio program, which can be heard on Yankton's KYNT-AM weekday afternoons.

The public is invited to attend.

Pheasants Receive Van Leur From Winnipeg

SIoux FALLS — The Winniepeg Goldeyes have sent Brandon native Jack Van Leur back to the Sioux Falls Pheasants as his own player to be named later, completing the late-season trade between the two clubs.

Van Leur, a left-handed relief pitcher, departed for Winnipeg in mid-August after posting 39 appearances, a 3-1 record and a 3.78 ERA with Sioux Falls. He issued seven walks and 23 strikeouts. He was particularly adept at retiring left-handed hitters, who batted just .154 with just two extra-base hits against him.

With the Winnipeg Goldeyes, Van Leur went 1-0 with a 6.75 ERA in 12 appearances in the regular season, and he helped the Goldeyes win the 2012 American Association championship.

Information about individual tickets and group outings with the Sioux Falls Pheasants is available by calling (605) 336-6060 or visiting www.sfpheasants.com.

down after one bad play, according to Epp.

"Soccer is full of adversity," he said. "You can't let one bad thing affect the way you approach every play, or you'll never come back from it."

through the half, putting the Tigers up 3-0.

The fast start was not something the Tigers had done much of this season, according to head coach L. Dale Roden.

"It's been a known weakness of ours that we come out soft," he said. "We're trying to learn from our mistakes. We're not where we want to be, but we're steadily improving."

Nelson came in after the third DWU goal and helped keep the Tigers scoreless over the next 40 minutes, until Ali Said broke free again for a score. Miranda Ehrenfried added a goal in the 81st minute for the Tigers.

Johnson had two assists, and Peterson and Kylie Keiser had assists in the win.

MMC finished with a 21-16 edge in shots, with DWU holding a 10-8 edge in shots on goal. Jennifer Granflaten had seven of those shots, with Allison Erwin recording four.

DWU improved to 1-4 overall, 1-1 in the GPAC. The Tigers stay on the road, heading to Concordia on Saturday.

"We're 1-1 in conference play," Roden said. "The past doesn't matter."

The Lancers will take their 3-6 record, 0-2 in the GPAC, to Hastings, Neb., on Saturday, facing defending conference champion and preseason league favorite Hastings College. Against one of the toughest teams on their schedule, the Lancers must not put their heads and an 18-10 edge in shots on goal.

"We did a fairly decent job of putting pressure on the ball," Tosaya said. "We've got to score goals on the run of play. We had 30 shots and scored three goals off set pieces. That's not very good."

Seth Anderson made seven saves in goal in relief of Martinez-Mojica, who also made seven saves in goal.

"Seth did a really good job,"

Epp said. "He went out with energy and communicated well. The last goal, I'm sure he's kicking himself on, but he did a good job of keeping us in the game."

Despite playing short and playing a third match in four days, the Lancers showed determination on the field, according to Koch.

"I felt like we played with a lot of heart, a lot of chemistry," he said. "We were a tough team today."

If the Lancers carry that effort forward they will have more opportunities to win, according to Epp.

"If we can continue to play like that, we will have positive results," he said.

DWU, 2-7 overall and 1-1 in the GPAC, heads to play Concordia on Saturday. MMC, 1-8 and 0-2, travels to defending national runner-up Hastings on Saturday. The Lancers will be without Martinez-Mojica, who will have to sit that match because of Tuesday's red card.

"We're at the point where we need to worry less about what's going on and just play soccer," Epp said. "It doesn't matter who we play. We need to keep our heads and play our style of soccer."
