Sign Rules In Place With Election Season

Election season is under way, and election signs are popping up around Yankton.

The City of Yankton reminds all candidates and supporters that election signs must be placed on private property out of the public right of way. Placing signs in parks and boulevards, or attaching signs to utility poles, street signs, street trees, or light poles is not allowed by Yankton City Ordinance.

A good general rule is to keep signs to the inside (house side) of a sidewalk or at least 15 feet from the roadside curb. Right-of-way width does vary throughout the city, so if you're not sure, give the Community Development Department a call and the staff will be happy to help you plan your sign placement.

Signs placed in the public right of way will be removed. Signs may be displayed up to 60 days prior and seven days after election day.

For more information, visit cityofyankton.org or call (605) 668-5251.

Business School To Honor Students, Alumni

VERMILLION — The University of South Dakota Beacom School of Business will honor students and distinguished alumni for their outstanding service and support at the annual Beacom School of Business Awards Luncheon this Saturday, Sept. 29.

Sara Boyum of West Point, Neb., who graduated in May 2012 with a B.B.A. in accounting, will receive the Outstanding Senior Award while Corey Backer of Sioux Falls, who received an M.P.A. in May 2012, will be honored with the Outstanding Graduate Student Award.

Additional awards honoring alumni include the Distinguished Service Award: Alumnus — Service to South Dakota Businesses to be presented to Lt. Gov. Matt Michels, a Vermillion native who received his B.S. in health services administration from USD and is also a graduate of the USD School of Law. Scott O. Jones of Pierre will be honored on Saturday with a Distinguished Service Award: Alumnus — South Dakota Business Person of the Year. Jones is president and CEO of Delta Dental of South Dakota and Doyle Knudson of Paradise Valley, Ariz., chair of the USD Foundation, will be presented with the Distinguished Service Award: Alumnus - Service to USD honor.

For more information about the annual Beacom School of Business Awards Luncheon, visit www.usd.edu/business or contact the dean's office at (605) 677-5455.

Crest Road To Be Closed Monday

The road that crosses Gavins Point Dam, also known as the Crest Road, will be closed on Monday, Oct. 1, running from 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m. to conduct maintenance on the powerplant. Alternate routes should be taken.

Yankton Republicans To Meet October 1

Yankton County Republicans will meet Monday, Oct. 1 to map out upcoming election day activities and get out the vote efforts.

County Republican Chairman Greg Adamson said, "All Republicans are invited to attend the meeting at Republican Headquarters at 214 Walnut Street beginning at 5:30 p.m. We are looking forward to an intensive fall campaign leading up to election day on Nov. 6."

Adamson continued, "With early voting under way already, the county party will be coordinating efforts to get voters to the polls between now and election day. Our candidates at the national, state and local level are working hard for a victory and the county party is supporting their every effort."

Program Set For Woman Of Distinction Winners

The Yankton Area Chamber of Commerce's Women Community Leaders Committee will recognize women who have been or currently are in public office and winners of the Woman of Distinction Award during a short program at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 2, at The Landing, 104 Capitol St. The event will be held from 5-8 p.m. The gathering is open to the public.

Committee members will also bartend for tips to raise money for the Woman of Distinction event. Nomination applications will be available. "We are sponsoring this event not only to celebrate women leaders in the community but also to share ideas on how the committee can continue to encourage future women leaders," says committee member Katie Hunhoff.

Call Carmen Bodden at the Chamber for more information: (605) 665-3636.

Deck Fire Extinguished In Irene

BY NATHAN JOHNSON
nathan.johnson@yankton.net

The quick response of the Irene Fire Department prevented a home from being engulfed in flames Thursday.

A call was received around 5:30 p.m. of a deck fire in the 200 block of West Turner Street in Irene, according to Fire Chief Bryce Johnke. The property owners were not home, and a passerby spotted smoke at the residence.

"The fire was contained to the back deck. It is a total loss," Johnke said. "There is a little bit of damage to the siding on the northeast corner of the home."

"In another minute or two, it probably would have gotten into the roof and been a lot worse," he added.

Johnke said firefighters were on scene for less than an hour.

He estimated there was about $5,000 in damage.

No cause for the fire had been determined.

PSAHL-KOSTEL

FUNERAL HOME & CREMATORY INC.

Guiding and serving families with compassion and trust.

"They were there for us..."

“During the process of planning the funeral for my husband Rich, Tami assured us we could call anytime day or night. That was really nice to know, because we did have questions and concerns and all we had to do was give them a call and we got things figured out. It was very comforting knowing that they were taking care of my husband. And now he’s watching over us.”

It was reassuring to know that Opsahl-Kostel Funeral Home & Crematory was there for us, guiding us through a very difficult time.
