on offense. We were letting them dictate our offense.' Early in the second half, that changed. In the 56th minute, Mount Marty's Genaro Bustillos took a pass from Adan Garcia-Marquez and slipped past Jamestown goalkeeper Steve Harris for the game-tying goal.

"In the second half, I was extremely pleased with how we came out," Epp said. "We had some great opportunities offensively, and our defense was able to frustrate them.³

That changed when O'Dell put home a cross from teammate Jack Keeling in the 61st minute. Six minutes later, Keeling put away a pass from Jonathan Jacobs to stretch the Jimmies' lead to two. Tyler Streif scored off a Caleb Gwerder pass in the closing minutes for Jamestown, icing

Peitz

Peitz was still in high school at that time, but a number of current Jackrab bits were on the team. Among them, Wagner native Trevor Greger, who was a redshirt — but made the trip to Lincoln — in 2010.

"It felt like I was, though," Greger said this week. "It was a great atmosphere. That was my first time being in a stadium that size. Unfortunately we couldn't pull it out."

Like Peitz, Greger, too, said his family are not big Husker fans. He did say, however, that the family of one of his close friends are "huge" fans.

the victory.

PRESS & DAKOTAN ■ WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2013

'As soon as they went up 2-1, it took the wind out of our sails," Epp said. "We played flat after that." Despite the margin, the Lancers still had a strong game in goal from Oscar Martinez-Mojica. Oscar played tremendous in the last 20 minutes," Epp said.

Harris made two saves, both in the first half, for Jamestown (5-4-1).

The Lancers, now 3-4, open Great Plains Athletic Conference play at Concordia on Saturday.

"It doesn't get any easier. The GPAC is a quality conference," Epp said. "We have to learn how to play consistently, play for a full 90 minutes.'

"I asked them, 'Who are you going to root for?' Greger said. "They said SDSU. But I know a lot of Nebraska fans, and I know they're looking forward to the game." So too are the Jackrabbits.

Even as it gears up for 90,000 screaming fans in a Big Ten environment, SDSU is instead focused on the end goal, Peitz said. Because, after all, Saturday is only a non-conference game, he added.

'Really, they're just like us," Peitz said. "They tie their shoes just like we do. We can't get hyped out. It's just a game; just another step in the road.
